

JOE NUXHALL

CLASS OF 2008

TEAMS: 1949 & 1950

MLB DEBUT: 1944

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

-  Nuxhall played for the Charleston Senators of the Class 'A' Central League during the first two seasons of baseball at Watt Powell Park
-  At the age of 15, he played a one-inning stint for the Reds, becoming the youngest player to play in the Major Leagues
-  He spent 16 seasons pitching in the Major Leagues
-  After his playing days, he spent 40 years as the voice of the Reds
-  Nuxhall died on November 15, 2007 after a bout with cancer
-  Honored by the Reds on Opening Day of 2008, the entire team wore his number 41