CHATTANOOGA LOOKOUTS PROMOTE TICKET PARTNERSHIP DIRECTOR ANDREW ZITO TO VICE PRESIDENT

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. – Today, the Chattanooga Lookouts have promoted current Ticket Partnership Director Andrew Zito to Vice President. Andrew will be entering his seventh season with the Lookouts after beginning in 2012 as a Food & Beverage Associate with the team.

“Andrew’s hard work and dedication to the Lookouts and the Chattanooga community makes him a perfect fit to help lead this team as the Vice President,” said Lookouts President Rich Mozingo.

In his new position Andrew will oversee the team’s sales staff and assist in the day-to-day operations of the ballpark. He will also handle baseball operations, serving as the team’s liaison to the Minnesota Twins.

“It has been a pleasure to see Andrew grow into a leadership role with the team and in the community,” said Lookouts Managing Owner Jason Freier. “We will all continue to benefit from Andrew’s passion, talent and energy.”

After graduating from the University of Central Florida, Andrew joined the Lookouts as part of the team’s inaugural intern class in 2012. After a year as the Food and Beverage Associate he became a part of the group sales team. In 2015, Andrew was promoted to Ticket Partnership Director where he saw increases in groups and tickets sales each year in that position.

“I want to thank Rich and Jason for letting me take the next step in my career,” Andrew said. “I am proud to be a part of the Lookouts organization and the incredible Chattanooga community.”

The Chattanooga Lookouts finished the 2017 season as Southern League Champions. Season Tickets and mini-plans for the team’s upcoming 2018 season are on sale now. For more information on how to secure your seats to the season’s best games call the Lookouts’ ticket office at 423-267-4TIX.
