

TREVOR HOFFMAN

CLASS OF 2007

TEAM: 1990

MLB DEBUT: 1993

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

-  Drafted by the Cincinnati Reds as a shortstop but, while with the Wheelers, Jim Lett suggested he try pitching
-  In his first season as a pitcher, he totaled 47.2 innings with a 1.89 ERA, 75 strikeouts and 20 saves
-  Established himself as an elite closer with 53 saves in 1988, tying the National League single-season record
-  On June 6, 2007, Hoffman recorded his 500th save
-  Inducted into the Major League Baseball Hall of Fame in 2018