BLUE ROCKS BREAKDOWN

HOME: 32-25 | AWAY: 39-26 STREAK: L1 | LAST 5: 4-1 | LAST 10: 7-3

A GOOD WALK SPOILED: In the middle contest of the three-game series between the top two teams in the Carolina League, the Wilmington Blue Rocks were walked off by the Down East Wood Ducks by a score of 4-3 on Saturday at Grainger Stadium. The loss snapped a four-game winning streak for the Blue Crew. It also marked the second time in the last six games the Rocks have been walked-off. Wilmington's offense was held in check after the fourth, having just one base runner over its final four trips to the plate

TOP OF THE STANDINGS TO YOU: Wilmington has sat atop the Carolina League North overall standings for most of the 2019 season—123 of the campaign's first 133 days. The Rocks have not been out of first place in the overall ledger since April 26. The only team with a better record than the Rocks is the Down East Wood Ducks.

CLIMB THAT HILL: The Royals added Delaware native Tyler Hill to the Wilmington roster last week and he has made the most of the opportunity. Hill was on base three more times on Saturday and in his first seven games as a Blue Rock is slashing a remarkable .393/.469/.607. Originally drafted by the Red Sox in the 19th round of the 2014 Hill was selected by the Tigers in the Minor League phase of the Rule 5 Draft. Detroit turned around and traded him to the Yankees for cash and then New York released him in June. Hill was born in Wilmington and graduated from the Delaware Military Academy.

FOUR FOR THE WIN: Four continues to be the magic number for the Blue Rocks in 2019. Wilmington improved to 44-7 when scoring four-or-more runs in a game this season. Conversely the Blue Crew are just 28-43 when playing three-or-fewer runs.

NOT HOW, BUT HOW MANY: Wilmington has operated as a quality over quantity offensive attack all season long. The CL North First Half champs won despite getting out-hit 13-7 on Friday. It marked the 32nd time in 2019 the Rocks have won despite managing fewer knocks than their vanquished foe.

KILLING IT IN CLOSE CONTESTS: The Blue Crew continue to get it done in close games this season. The Rocks lead the Carolina League with 53 games decided by a single score in 2019 and have played 72 affairs with a margin of victory of two-or-less. Wilmington is an impressive 50-22 in those close calls including 38-15 in one-run decisions

NO-NO: For the first time in 19 years a Blue Rocks pitcher threw a no-hitter. In fact, Jonathan Bowlan was a second-inning defensive miscue away from tossing a perfect game in the Blue Crew's 3-0 victory over the Carolina Mudcats on July 15 at Frawley Stadium. The right-hander allowed just six balls to escape the infield all night. He did almost walk the first batter of the game, but ended up striking out Brice Turang on a full-count pitch. Bowlan did the same thing to Turang to end the game. The 22-year-old Memphis, TN native finished his night with nine strikeouts and threw 98 total pitches, 63 of which went for strikes.

BACK IN THE POSTSEASON: Wilmington clinched its first post-season berth since 2015 with its first-half CL North championship. That year Wilmington won the first half with a 38-32 record. The Rocks won 44 games in 2019 and finished 19 games above .500 in the first half. The Blue Crew clinched their 2019 crown on June 8. The 2015 Blue Crew eventually reached the Mills Cup Championship Series by sweeping Lynchburg in the Northern Division Championship Series. Wilmington is in search of its first Carolina League crown since 1999.

Today's Starting Pitchers

Wilmington: LHP Daniel Lynch

Down East: RHP Noah Bremer

Today's Starter for the Blue Crew

Daniel Lynch is one of four first-round selections the Royals used on starting pitching in the 2018 Draft. Lynch was the 34th overall pick out of the University of Virginia and signed for $1.7 million. He struggled his first two seasons as a Cavalier, posting a combined ERA of over five as a freshman and sophomore, but saw things click in 2018. As a junior he lowered his ERA to 3.88 and struck out 105 in only 88.2 innings. Then he split his debut professional season between Low-A Lexington and Rookie-Burlington. Lynch allowed one run or fewer in 10 of his total starts. He entered the season as the organization's fourth-ranked prospect according to MLB.com. Lynch was placed on the Disabled List due to arm soreness on June 11. He went to the Arizona Rookie League on a rehab assignment in late-July and prolonged his rehab with Rookie-Burlington on August 3. He returned to the Wilmington roster on August 13.

TODAY'S BLUE ROCKS STARTING PITCHER

#29 LHP Daniel Lynch

Acquired: First-Round Pick (34th overall) in 2018 Draft

Born: Richmond, VA

Age: 22 (November 17, 1996)

Resides: Richmond, VA

Ht: 6'6 Wt: 190

College: Virginia

Bats/Throws: L/L

Pitch Repertoire: 4FB, 2FB, CB, SL, CH

THE BOOK ON DANIEL LYNCH: Daniel Lynch is one of four first-round selections the Royals used on starting pitching in the 2018 Draft. Lynch was the 34th overall pick out of the University of Virginia and signed for $1.7 million. He struggled his first two seasons as a Cavalier, posting a combined ERA of over five as a freshman and sophomore, but saw things click in 2018. As a junior he lowered his ERA to 3.88 and struck out 105 in only 88.2 innings. Then he split his debut professional season between Low-A Lexington and Rookie-Burlington. Lynch allowed one run or fewer in 10 of his total starts. He entered the season as the organization's fourth-ranked prospect according to MLB.com. Lynch was placed on the Disabled List due to arm soreness on June 11. He went to the Arizona Rookie League on a rehab assignment in late-July and prolonged his rehab with Rookie-Burlington on August 3. He returned to the Wilmington roster on August 13.

LONG SUMMER: Lynch went three straight starts and 22 consecutive innings without allowing a run before he yielded one on June 1. He also left that outing after just 1.1 frames with an arm injury. He made five rehab appearances with Surprise and Burlington, tossing five scoreless in his last outing on August 8. Lynch scattered five hits and a pair of walks while whiffing three. He returned to Rocks this week and held Lynchburg to two runs over six innings.

VERSUS OPPONENT: Lynch is making his second start against Down East. The lefty fanned six and yielded just one run over seven innings of a no-decision at Frawley Stadium on April 20.

FILLING THE HOSMER VOID: Lynch was acquired by the Royals with a compensatory pick the organization received following the departure of former Blue Rock Eric Hosmer in free agency. Hosmer spent a portion of two seasons with the Blue Rocks, spending the last two months of 2009 with Wilmington as the youngest player in the Carolina League (19). He returned for the first four months of 2010, and won a CL batting crown, before eventually leading Kansas City to its first world championship in three decades.

CL RECOGNIZED: Lynch was named the Carolina League Pitcher of the Week for the period between May 20 and May 27 the league. It was the first weekly award captured by a Rock despite the fact that the team has been atop the CL North standings for more than 80 percent of the campaign. Lynch went 2-0 during the week and did not allow a single score.

DRAFT DAY ROLLERCOASTER: Lynch and his family didn't know where he would be headed on Draft obviously, because no one ever does. But they also weren't quite sure when he would go in the draft either. After a slow start to his college career Lynch finished strong down the stretch of his junior season. Scouts were telling him he'd go relatively high, but the window was still pretty big. He was hopeful to go on day one and his family and friends gathered to watch the draft. "I actually didn't even hear my name called though," Lynch admits now. "I was outside just trying to get some fresh air. I was out with my dad and my family was inside. I was starting to wonder how long we were going to have to wait. But I got a call sort of setting up the deal, and then I heard everybody screaming back inside. So, I knew that my name had been called. But then we went back inside and everyone was happy and celebrating and so I didn't get to see my name called until the next morning because everything was super hectic. But a good kind of hectic."

SIMPLIFYING AND CLEARING THE MIND: Lynch says he was a little drained after his college career wrapped up. He had a good junior season, but overall his tenure at UVA did not go exactly as he had hoped. So the stretch where he wasn't assigned to a team kind of helped reset things for the pitcher. I had sort of a mental, psychological block that was going on somewhere.," Lynch says. "I really don't ever try to think about mechanics that much. I try to be more based on feel. And things were just a little off. Once I got some time away, that time when we were done between the draft was actually a really good stretch for me. I think I went four or five times and just played catch with my dad. I just sort of got back to having fun, playing catch, and not thinking about anything. And I think that sort of helped bring back my natural motion. I think that had a lot to do with (my success last season), just getting more natural with my motion and not really thinking about my mechanics. Suddenly it was just about going out there and competing and (success) followed."

- Batted .299 w/1HR 11XBH 10RBI in 20G in Idaho Falls
- Reached safely in 36 of 39 games in his pro debut

Hicklen said it: (On bouncing all over the place last season)..."Last year was an extended roller coaster for sure, starting off in extended spring training basically being really disappointed with that. Then I went to Lexington starting off really slow there and then kind of catching fire there for a couple months, and then having the opportunity to move up to Wilmington was really really special. Got up here, really had a good time, started playing well with the guys and then I got called into the office unexpectedly and was told that Seuly (Matias) got hurt in Lexington and that I was going to have to go back for the playoffs. Originally I was pretty upset, but I had to look through it with a different lens and just try to change my perspective. That's one of the biggest lessons I learned last year and in life was that it's all about what lens you look through. So I took that approach and made the most of my opportunity in Lexington. I went down there and felt like I contributed a lot to the team. I felt like I was a leader on the team, and at the end of the day we were able win a championship, which is what you set out to do at the beginning of every year you play this game."

Age: 22 B/T: L/R
Born: Fontana, CA

PRONUNCIATION: IS-BELL

Notes: Selected in the 3rd round of the 2018 Draft out of UNLV... Was named the Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year and to the Louisville Slugger Freshman All American Team in 2016... In 2018 he was named First Team All-Conference after finishing top 5 in the league in batting average and HRs... He was a Cape Cod League All Star... Received a $594K signing bonus

2019 Notes:

- Enters the season as the 10th ranked prospect in the KC system according to MLB.com
- Hit the Rocks' first HR of season on Opening Day vs Salem. Marked 3rd straight season a Blue Rocks hit a homer in first game of season
- Went to the injured list on 4/18
- Rehabbed with AZL Royals July 4 - July 12. Batted .360, 7 RBI, 2 doubles and 2 homeruns in 7 games
- Returned to the Blue Rocks on 7/13

2018 Notes:

- Split his first pro season between Low-A Lexington and Rookie-Idaho Falls
- Batted .381 w/4HR 15XBH 18RBI 14BB in 25G in Idaho Falls
- Was promoted to Lexington in mid-July
- Batted .289 w/3HR 16XBH 14RBI 12BB in 39G at Lexington
- Batted .382 vs LHP and just .240 against RHP

Isbel said it: (On his debut pro season)..."Last year was just the perfect situations for me in my first year of pro ball. The coaches were always helping me out. My teammates around me made it easy for me to play. I didn't really have to rely on myself too much. I knew that people behind me would do the job if I didn't get it done. And it was just stress free and having fun."
(On the experience of winning a championship in his first year as a pro)..."Stepping into that team atmosphere was absolutely awesome. The teammates I had, it was like a family. It was stress free from day one and we just would all play well together. It was good to go through that and to get a taste of it right away."
(On Draft Day)...It was just an awesome experience. It's a dream come true. Since day one. I've been working for that. Now my goal is to be playing in the big leagues so I'll keep working and have a ways to go, but this is obviously a big first step. And everybody (at UNLV) was just so supportive. (Being the highest drafted player ever in program history) is a huge honor. I worked hard for it, but certainly could not have done it without everyone who helped me."
(On Differences between playing in college and the pros)...The biggest (difference) is just playing every day. Everybody talks about just getting used to the grind, but it's hard to appreciate how different it is until you get to experience it. Really in college you play three days a week and in pro ball you play every single day. So just getting used to that was the biggest adjustment."
(On his appreciation of Derek Jeter)...My favorite player growing up was Derek Jeter just the way he went out and did his business and how he's respected by other players."

Melendez said it: (On being a catcher)...I definitely take a lot of pride in catching just because I'm not only catching for myself but also for the pitchers. I have to be able to call a good game, be able to frame pitches that are borderline, be able to block balls. I want my pitchers to have confidence in me and trust in me to be able to throw breaking ball with two strikes and know that I'm going to be able to block it. I do think that defense comes first but it's a balance. I don't think hitting should be very far behind." (On his relationship with fellow catching prospect Silberto Rivero)...It's been amazing working together, we have a great relationship. On and off the field. I think on the field when one of us are struggling a little bit whether it's with the bat, were able to help each other out, give each other advice. If one of us is doing good in that category, be able to like pick each other back up, and just give each other advice and kind of boost each other's confidence when we may not have it. And then when we're both doing well, just trying to piggyback on that and make sure that we can keep that flowing for as long as possible." (On passing up the chance to play for his Dad at FIU)... "It was definitely a tough decision. I grew up watching my dad's teams play all my life and have never been to the College World Series Super Regional. So that's something that I wanted to do. I wanted to go play for him, not only for myself, but also for him. I wanted to bring that bring back the College World Series title to wherever he's coaching if I knew at that that particular moment, and so it was definitely a tough decision. But my dad and my family supported me."

PRONUNCIATION: PRAH-TOE

Notes: Selected in the first round (14th overall pick) of the 2017 Draft out of Huntington Beach High School in California...Baseball America touted him as the best high school hitter in his draft class and he turned down a scholarship at USC to sign for $2.5 million...Won world championships in back-to-back seasons in 2015 and 2016 with USA Baseball's U18 National Team... First time he wore a Royals uniform was in Little League, and it just happened to be the year he hit the first home run of his life on a pitch he said came in above his eyes... Had a walk-off single with the bases loaded as a 12 year old to defeat Japan 2-1 in the Little League World Series

2019 Notes:

- Entered the season as the fifth-ranked prospect in the KC system according to MLB.com
- 4-9: Got Rocks' first walk-off win w/10th inning single vs WS
- Slashed .167/.262/.230 w/2HR, 21RBI, 27BB, 8-2B in First Half

2018 Notes:

- Played in a career-high 127G for Low-A Lexington
- Batted .280 w/14HR 49XBH 62RBI 45BB 22SB
- Ranked top six in the South Atlantic League in runs, doubles, hits, total bases, games, XBHs and average
- Was named to the South Atlantic League midseason All-Star Game was named the game's MVP
- Named the Frank White Defensive Player of the Year as the organization's top defensive prospect
- Entered the season as the Royals' top-ranked prospect according to Baseball America

2017 Notes:

- Spent the season with Rookie-Surprise
- Batted .247 w/4HR 22XBH 34RBI 24BB in 52G
- Was named the Surprise Player of the Year
- Led the team in homers and RBI and was 2nd in hits

Pratto said it: (On his first year of full-season ball)...I think overall it was a good year offensively. There were some areas I can work on like consistency and cutting down on the strikeouts, but I made progress. The biggest thing was getting used to full-season ball, all the ups and downs you go through. You have to ride the wave. It was a long year, but having guys like MJ [Melendez] and Seuly [Matias]...we all just built off each other. It was a fantastic team." (On Making a Playoff Run last year in Lexington)... That was my first taste of the playoffs. Obviously, you put expectations in your head, but it lived up to it and was a lot of fun." (On his defense)...I had to work on my throwing a little bit, on throws to second and to first. I changed my arm slot mid-year, and it really didn't help me out. So we went back to how I normally do it. Naturally, I'm in a lower slot, a little more sidearm. I've always been fine in terms of accuracy, but the infielders were complaining that my throws moved too much [like a two-seam fastball]. But I went back to my normal slot and everything is fine. I think what I'm best at is picking balls in the dirt, and my agility around the bag. Picking balls and saving bad throws is huge." (On Who He Admires in Game) I really like Joey Votto's offensive approach at the plate. He has the average, the on-base percentage, the slugging percentage. He doesn't strike out too much. That's what I'd like to be.

Rivero said: (On his relationship with former Blue Rock and current Royal Salvador Perez)... "My favorite player is Salvador Perez. He's exactly (what a catcher should be). He is injured this year, but I had the pleasure to play with him last spring training in the Big League camp. He told me a lot of tips and and was go (generous) with his time. It was really an amazing experience. I had a bunch of fun. He's a funny guy. I laughed a lot with him and I tried to ask a lot of questions to him, and that helped me. I appreciate him as a person and as a catcher." (On his relationship with fellow catcher MJ Melendez)... "We have a pretty good communication with each other and we push each other. If he went bad one day I'll step up for him and he does the same for me, so we just really help each other" (On working with a pitching staff full of prospects)... It's pretty fun working (with these prospect pitchers) because these guys know what they're doing and what they want to throw and why." (On how he can become a better hitter)... My (biggest thing) is to be ahead in the count. That is my focus. When I'm ahead I get better pitches, make better swings make more doubles, make more RBI, Make more of everything (but) strikeouts." (On being from Venezuela)... My family is still all back home and they watch and listen to everything on the internet. They follow so close for being so far. I got to go home and spend some time with them this offseason. That was great because I don't know if I will get back there next winter. I'm going to spend a lot of time in Arizona working (to improve at the) Royals' facility. It's tough, but they understand and support me."

Schultz said it: On living with a host family "I have lived with host families in the past during summer ball. It's awesome. What host families do for the players, the behind the scenes stuff that they take care of to make it an easy transition for us, they are the real heroes. On going to UC Riverside "I went to a community college out of high school and at the time, they came and saw me play a few times and I had a few teammates on the team who were committed there so they would come out and watch them play and consequently saw me play and after that, I signed and really enjoyed my time there." On signing free agent deal with the Royals "It was a dream come true. The fact that they are giving me an opportunity to continue my baseball career is something I will forever be grateful. I want to ride this wave as long as I can." On playing other positions "I can play third base, but middle infield, especially shortstop is where I played mostly in college. As long as I'm out on the field trying to help the team win, it doesn't matter where I play. At third base, it's more of a one-handed position. Sometimes you are playing for a bunt, other times you don't have that much reaction time and you have to be ready." On deciding to want to pursue baseball as a career "I grew up playing the game. "My two older brothers played and my dad played in college and a little bit after that. I'd say it was after high school when I had the opportunity to either pursue baseball or sit back. Due to an elbow injury, I actually took my freshman year off and that really opened my eyes and solidified that I would miss the game. It's a grind and if you don't really love the game, it can chew you up and spit you out." On learning more than just the elbow injury "I actually found out that I have a gluten allergy so now my diet is extremely important to me. I put on muscle, I put on weight and now I've never felt better and it's really been beneficial for me. Person or player he idolized "Although my dad is a Boston Red Sox fan, I've always loved watching Derek Jeter. Just the type of guy he is and his work ethic. Dustin Pedroia is an absolute grinder and a little guy. Then there's my dad, he's been there every step of the way baseball wise. My mom as well, she has been the worker of the house, supporting myself and my brothers. My family in general just really have supported me and I can't thank them enough."
