SAN JOSE GIANTS 2018 NATIONAL ANTHEM INFORMATION

A San Jose Giants baseball game is a great opportunity for musical talents in the Bay Area to showcase their skills. Fans have been enjoying exceptional in-game entertainment at Municipal Stadium for over seventy-five years. Past National Anthem and Seventh Inning Stretch performers have included recording artists Taylor Swift, Emerson Drive, James Durbin, Eric Paslay and Thia Megia as well as community groups, local choirs and little leagues.

The San Jose Giants are currently seeking singers and instrumentalists to perform the National Anthem and God Bless America during the 2018 season. Groups and individuals are encouraged to submit an audition via CD, MP3 or video link.

OPTIONS TO BE CONSIDERED FOR THIS GREAT HONOR:

- Purchase a Park Packer
 All groups purchasing a Park Packer can be part of the San Jose Giants pregame ceremonies including the National Anthem Performance. This process will give your group priority for the anthem (subject to availability). To start your group event planning process, please call a San Jose Giants Group Sales representative at 408.297.1435.

- Individual Audition Submissions
 Individuals and small singing groups also can have the opportunity to perform at a San Jose Giants game. Any individual or choir chosen by the San Jose Giants to perform the National Anthem or God Bless America will be notified of their selection one month prior to their assigned game date.

*All prospective National Anthem and God Bless America performances must be 120 seconds in length or less. To be considered, please send your audition audio file to:
