RE: Yard Goats Announce Winterfest at Dunkin' Donuts Park

Hartford Yard Goats to Host Winterfest Event Saturday at Dunkin' Donuts Park

Free Event includes Behind the Scenes Tours, Arts & Crafts, Face Painting, S'mores, Batting Cages, Mascots & more

Hartford, Conn- The Hartford Yard Goats Baseball Club, the Double-A Eastern League Affiliate of the Colorado Rockies, announced that it will host its first ever Winterfest this Saturday, December 9th from 11:00 AM until 2:00 PM at Dunkin' Donuts Park in Hartford. This free event is open to the public and will include behind the scene tours of Dunkin' Donuts Park, Arts & Crafts, Face Painting, S'mores, Cookie Decorating, Yard Goats mascots Chompers and Chew Chew, and Fancy Pants, the goat from Circle K Farm of East Hampton. Fans will also have the opportunity to test out the indoor climate control professional batting cages that the Yard Goats use. The Yard Goats will also be collecting non-perishable food items for Hands on Hartford's food pantry. Fans that donate will receive 10% off merchandise in the team store. There will be special access for Yard Goats Season Ticket holders at 10:00 AM.

Most of the festivities will be held outside on the main concourse level of Dunkin' Donuts Park. Fans may enter Winterfest at the main gate on the corner of Main Street and Trumbull Street and no tickets are required for this free event. The Yard Goats Retro Brand Team Store will also be open for those that want to do some holiday shopping. The latest Yard Goats merchandise, including specially designed Holiday clothing and ornaments are available for purchase. The Click It or Ticket Box Office will also be open for fans that want to purchase any ticket packages.
