

joe@rawhidebaseball.com

Joe is a Tulare County local who was born and raised in Lindsay. He graduated from Lindsay High School in 2004 and has spent time living in Southern California & the Bay Area. He loves going to baseball games, especially at AT&T Park in San Francisco. He comes to the Visalia Rawhide with a background in Real Estate, Sales, Marketing & Event Planning. While this is his first job with a professional sports team, he is hoping his local knowledge, love of sports & enthusiasm for baseball will make him an asset to the Rawhide Family.

College: Cal-State Fullerton

Hometown: Lindsay, CA

Favorite Sports Team: San Francisco 49ers & San Francisco Giants

Most Hated Sports Team: Los Angeles Doyers

Favorite Meal: Mom's Taco Salad

Favorite Movie: Forrest Gump

The one thing you would need on a deserted island: A lighter

Song that pumps you up: 2pac - Ambitionz Az A Ridah

Pet Peeve: Mean & Angry People

Nickname: Joe

Favorite Comic Book character: Deadpool

Desired Super Power: Mind Reading

Favorite Subject in School: History & Government

Highlight of sports career: Playing Days: Three (3) Sacks in one game (vs. Woodlake) as a Senior in high school as a Member of the Lindsay High School Varsity Football Team. Post Playing Days: Being the play-by-play announcer for Lindsay Youth Football.