

Wilmington Blue Rocks

College Credit Internship Program

Outline

The Wilmington Blue Rocks offer non-paid, game-day internships. Each intern will work selected home games during the 2012 season. The Blue Rocks will work with you to make sure you receive the required number of hours needed to fulfill the requirements of your internship. Report time is three hours before game time and each intern will work through the end of the game. Important- to qualify for Game Day Internships, each candidate must demonstrate they will be receiving school credit for the internship.

Who is Eligible?

The Wilmington Blue Rocks Internship Program is open to any qualified applicant who is currently a college student, graduate or post-graduate student and is pursuing a career in professional sports.

Dates of Internship Program

April 1 – November 1

(Note-these dates represent the period in which you can participate in an internship with the Blue Rocks. You are not required to start April 1 and work through November 1.)

Flexibility

We can work around any current job or summer school schedule. You are not required to work every game.

Job Description

As a non-paid game day intern, you will select the games you want to work. We will work with you to make sure you reach the required number of internship hours as dictated by your school.
