Are you a health care professional? The Spokane Indians would like to invite health care professionals to join breast cancer survivors and their supporters in the 2014 Pitch for the Cure Walk. Brave women and men who face a diagnosis of breast cancer do not embark on the journey alone - dedicated doctors, nurses and staff members make it their mission to provide the best possible treatment and care to their patients. Devoted healthcare professionals are welcome to join the walk as they cheer on the participants in the Pitch for Cure Walk.
