JOB DESCRIPTION

As an intern with the Burlington Bees, you will actively be a part of the many facets of running a minor league baseball organization. Primary responsibilities include coordinating promotions, providing first-rate customer service, maintaining a clean facility that is fan-friendly, marketing the team around town and in surrounding communities, and looking for ways to improve our operations.

START DATE

Start in mid-May and end in August or September (start and finish dates are flexible).

HOURS

Full time. Non-game day during season 9-5, game days 9am through end of game. Expect to work weekends and special events.

COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

Your housing, cable television, and all utilities are paid for. The team provides a free meal each home game. $250 a month stipend. Membership to the local YMCA

QUALIFICATIONS

Do you have what it takes to be a Burlington Bees intern?

We're looking for talented, self-motivated individuals who want to learn what goes on behind the scenes of professional baseball. We value open-minded, conscientious team players possessing a positive attitude and a willingness to do what it takes to get the job done. Must have excellent writing, computer skills and a willingness to work long hours and weekends. If you feel you belong in this category, we look forward to talking with you. Anyone interested should send their resume to Kim Parker at kim@gobees.com, no phone calls please.
