TEXAS LEAGUE RANKINGS

Table with 2 columns: Category and Rank. Includes Batting Average/Rank, ERA/Rank, etc.

Go Fourth and Surrender: The RoughRiders dropped their second straight matinee contest with Midland yesterday, losing 8-4 with the bulk of the damage being done in a six-run RockHounds fourth inning.

Café Latte: Wednesday's game turned into a career day for Teodoro Martinez, who drove in all of the RoughRiders' runs. Café went 4 for 4, tying a career-best in hits, with two home runs and four runs batted in.

Ten for Tommy: With his eighth inning single in yesterday's ballgame, Riders catcher Tomas Telis ran his hitting streak to ten games. The streak is the longest by a Frisco player this season.

Second half team: As the RockHounds showed on Wednesday, teams have been able to damage the Riders early in games. This season, Frisco is being outscored 96-65 in the first four innings of games.

Get on my back, boys: Brett Nicholas has been carrying the load lately for the RoughRiders offense. Over the last four games, Nicholas has gone 6 for 12 with a double, three home runs, nine RBI, two walks and two hit-by-pitches.

11 o'clock cruise: Though he was charged with his first loss of the season, Neil Ramirez was certainly the least of Frisco's problems on Tuesday against Midland. The Virginian went a season-long seven innings and allowed three runs on just three hits.

The pen needs more ink: After a spectacular start to the season, the RoughRiders' bullpen has begun to falter lately. Entering play on April 27, Frisco's relievers had posted a 1.09 ERA (10 ER/82.2 IP).

Indefensible: The defensive disparity between the RoughRiders and their opponents has been glaring, not only in the number of errors being committed by the opposition but also in the number of unearned runs that Frisco has been able to plate lately.

Fantastic Four: It's easy enough to understand, but the RoughRiders generally win when the offense is performing very well and they generally lose when it doesn't. Frisco is 18-4 when scoring four runs or more in a game.

Pino Time!: Carlos Pimentel turned in another solid outing on Sunday to earn his fourth win of the season. The Dominican right-hander allowed just two runs on two hits (one of them a two-run homer by Giovanni Mier) and two walks over five innings with nine strikeouts.

Today's Opposing Starter: RHP Josh Bowman (2-1, 4.54) makes his eighth start of the season tonight and his first against the RoughRiders. He got a no-decision his last time out against San Antonio, yielding five runs (one earned) on three hits and four walks in five innings.
