JOHN MOZELIAK • SR. VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

John “Mo” Mozeliak was named the Cardinals Senior Vice President and General Manager in October, 2007 and enters his seventh season in that role. Mozeliak received a three-year contract extension through 2016 in February 2013. He was promoted from Assistant General Manager – a position he had held for six seasons – and is the 12th general manager in the over 100-year history of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Mozeliak saw the 2012 team return to the National League Championship series and fall just one win short of a return trip to the World Series. Led by a new manager and with a series of young talent that stepped in throughout the season, the 2012 Cardinals captured the second Wild Card spot in the National League in Major League Baseball’s new playoff format. Mo’s efforts were recognized by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum during 2012 and 2013, and in 2013 he was named Executive of the Year.

The organization was recently recognized by Baseball America, MLB.com and ESPN.com for its scouting and player development prior to the start of the 2013 season.

Baseball America named the Cardinals as their 2011 Organization of the Year. This prestigious honor, awarded to the Cardinals for the first time, recognized that the team’s big league success was built upon a strong foundation of a restructured organization that claimed two minor league titles in 2011 and that since 2005 has had more team-drafted players debut in the majors than any other club in MLB. In addition, Mo was the 2011 recipient of the MLB.com GIBBY (Greatness in Baseball Yearly) Executive of the Year award and he was named, along with Tony LaRussa, as the 2011 Baseball Man of the Year by the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

In January 2010, Mo orchestrated the largest player contract in team franchise history with the signing of Matt Holliday to a seven-year deal with an option for 2017. Upon being named GM in 2007, Mo traded for David Freese and in March of 2012 he completed a deal with catcher Yadier Molina that ensures one of the best catchers in the game remains in a Cardinals uniform through at least 2017. Mo’s in-season moves in 2009 helped the Cardinals to their first N.L. Central Division title under his watch.

Mozeliak, 44, is an 18-year veteran of the Cardinals front office, having joined the organization following the 1995 season where he initially served as an assistant in scouting operations during both the 1996 and 1997 seasons. Mo was named assistant scouting director in 1998 and was promoted to scouting director during 1999 and 2000. Several notable players came out of the draft classes of ’99 and 2000 under Mo’s direction, most notably first baseman and perennial All-Star Albert Pujols who was drafted in the 13th round of the 1999 draft, as well as catcher Yadier Molina.

In 2001, Mozeliak was named Director of Baseball Operations and in 2003 he was promoted to Assistant General Manager. During his time as Assistant GM, Mo’s duties increased as he focused more on the Major League Club and professional scouting, while still having direct involvement in both the scouting and player development departments.

Mozeliak began his career in baseball in 1993 with the Colorado Rockies where he worked in a variety of positions in baseball operations. He attended the University of Arizona and the University of Colorado. He currently serves as the National Trustee for the Foundation Fighting Blindness.

MIKE GIRSch • ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Girsch is in his fourth season as the Cardinals’ Assistant General Manager after being appointed to that position in January 2011. In his role, he assists General Manager John Mozeliak with Major League player transactions, contract negotiations and player evaluations and helps oversee all aspects of Baseball Operations including amateur and pro scouting, player development, international operations and baseball development.

Girsch joined the Cardinals in 2006, starting his career with a two year stint as the Coordinator of Amateur Scouting. In 2008, he was named Director of the newly created Baseball Development department – a group focused on supporting Baseball Operations via internet applications, analytical models and decision support tools. Mike led the Baseball Development department for three years before being promoted to Assistant GM.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Girsch, 36, earned a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics from the University of Notre Dame and an MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business.

MIKE KANTROVITZ • DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Kantrovitz begins his third season as the Cardinals’ Director of Scouting overseeing the amateur draft. He reports to VP/General Manager John Mozeliak.

This is Kantrovitz’s second stint with the Cardinals. From 2004-2008, he worked for the organization in roles in amateur, international and professional scouting, including Assistant Scouting Director and Director of College Scouting. He also assisted in the creation of the Cardinals’ computer system, Redbirdog.

From 2009-2011, Kantrovitz led the International Scouting department for the Oakland A’s, most recently as Director of International Scouting. Under his guidance, the A’s signed players from the Dominican Republic, Venezuela, Mexico, Cuba, Colombia, Panama, Taiwan, Korea, Aruba and Europe. He also assisted on analytical projects in various aspects of baseball operations.

Prior to working in baseball, Kantrovitz was an all-Ivy League shortstop at Brown University who twice batted over .400. He was drafted by the Cardinals in the 25th round of the 2001 MLB draft. After a shoulder injury shortened his professional career, he worked as an investment banking analyst and for a company providing statistical analysis to major league teams.

A St. Louis native, Kantrovitz, 34, graduated from John Burroughs High School. He holds a bachelor’s degree from Brown University and a master’s degree in statistics from Harvard University.

GARY LAROCQUE • DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Gary LaRocque joined the St. Louis organization in 2008 as Senior Special Assistant to the General Manager and was named to his current position prior to the 2013 season. In this role, LaRocque will oversee all aspects of player development.

LaRocque is in his 38th year in professional baseball in player development and scouting. He served in senior management levels for the New York Mets beginning in 1998, as Scouting Director, Assistant General Manager and Vice President/Player Development and Scouting through 2005 and was appointed Vice President of Professional Scouting in 2006. Before joining the Mets, Gary started his professional playing career as a minor league infielder in 1975 with the Milwaukee Brewers, and began a 19-year career with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1979 as a minor league coach. He began managing in 1981 through 1983 in the Pioneer League and Gulf Coast Rookie League, followed by the Class AA Texas League for four seasons and in 1988 managed in the California League. LaRocque moved into the scouting department in 1989 as area scout and from 1992-1997 was a regional scouting supervisor for the Dodgers.

LaRocque acquired his degree in secondary Education (Mathematics) in 1975 from the University of Hartford, West Hartford, Conn., and was elected to the Athletic Hall of Fame at the University of Hartford in 1993.

JOHN VUCH • DIRECTOR OF BASEBALL ADMINISTRATION

John Vuch is in his 27th season in Baseball Operations and his 36th overall with the Cardinals. He held the title of Farm Director from September 2010 through the 2012 seasons, and during that time oversaw Championships for three teams [Quad Cities (A) & Johnson City (R) in 2011, Springfield (AA) in 2012]. The championships in Quad Cities and Johnson City in 2011, marked the first time since 1994 multiple Cardinals minor league affiliates won league championships, and the 2012 Springfield Cardinal team was recognized as the Minor League Team of the Year.

Under his leadership, the 2010 Cardinals Minor League system had the highest combined winning percentage of any Major League organization. The Cardinals were recognized as the 2011 Organization of the Year by Baseball America and heading into 2013, the Cardinals organization has been recognized for its scouting and player development by Baseball America, MLB.com and ESPN.com.

As Director of Minor League Operations, a position he held for more than three years from 2007-2010, Vuch is responsible for the daily operations of the Cardinals’ farm system and is involved with the club’s minor league player personnel decisions. Vuch has worked several years in the player development department, serving as the main contact for Cardinals’ minor league players. He began working for the Cardinals as a “runner” in 1979 and worked in the Sales Department from 1985 to 1987.

He was awarded the Harry Mitauer Good Guy Award by the St. Louis chapter of the Baseball Writer’s Association of America at their 51st annual dinner in 2009. A St. Louis native, Vuch graduated from Oakville High School and the University of Missouri-St. Louis with a bachelor’s degree in Business Administration.
MIKE JORGENSEN • SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Mike Jorgensen currently serves as a Special Assistant to the General Manager, a position he has held since September 2001. He served as director of player development for 10 seasons (1992-01), and was the team’s minor league hitting instructor/coordinator in 1990 and 1991.

Upon retiring as a player after the 1985 season, ‘Jorgy’ was hired as an instructor in the Cardinals’ minor league system. Midway through the 1986 season, he was named manager at St. Petersburg and led the team to the Florida State League championship. He managed the Triple-A Louisville Redbirds from 1987-99. He made his big-league managerial debut following the dismissal of Cardinals skipper Joe Torre on June 16, 1995, and guided the team to a 41-55 mark. While managing the field operations, he also remained in his post as director of player development.

Jorgensen was a lefthanded-hitting first baseman/outfielder during a major league career that spanned 18 seasons. He was selected by the New York Mets in the June 1966 free-agent draft and made his big-league debut in 1968. He was traded to Montreal at the start of the 1972 season, his first of five full seasons with the Expos. He went on to play for Oakland, Texas, the Mets again, Atlanta and St. Louis.

Jorgensen graduated from Francis Lewis High School in Flushing, N.Y., attended St. John’s University and served from 1967-1972 in the United States Marine Corps Reserve.

MATT SLATER • DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Slater joined the Cardinals organization in 2007 and was named Director of Player Personnel in January 2012. He is in his 24th year in Major League Baseball where over the course of his career, he has helped build division winners and playoff teams in Baltimore, Los Angeles and St. Louis. In his current role as senior talent evaluator, Slater works hand in hand with the General Manager in all player acquisitions including Major League, minor league, amateur draft and international talent. Furthermore, he aids in contract negotiations and roster composition. For the past seven years, Matt has served as a consultant to the Orix Buffaloes Baseball Club of Japan’s Nippon Professional Baseball league.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Slater served in various management capacities for the Los Angeles Dodgers for nine years, including Director of Scouting Operations, Director of Baseball Operations and Director of Professional Scouting. With the Dodgers, he oversaw scouting operations while also being involved with contract negotiations, arbitration and roster management. He worked with the Baltimore Orioles from 1995-98 as the Administrator of Scouting. Slater got his start in professional baseball with the Milwaukee Brewers when he was 19 years old. Beginning in 1991, he served as the Brewers’ Scouting and Player Development Assistant.

A native of Fort Wayne, Indiana, Slater graduated from Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wis., in 1993, with a degree in Business Administration – Organizational Management, and holds a law degree from Southwestern Law School in Los Angeles, Calif. He serves on the board of directors for Independence Center, a non-profit mental health facility in St. Louis.

RYAN FRANKLIN • SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Ryan Franklin joined the Cardinals front office in 2012 after a 10-year career as a Major League pitcher, his final five seasons with St. Louis. In 2012 Franklin scouted both within the Cardinals organization and other organizations, and advised the General Manager on players within the Cardinals system. His role increases in 2013 to include reporting on all levels of the Cardinals system and other various responsibilities.

Franklin enjoyed a career both as a starter and reliever in the major leagues. Franklin was named the American League Rookie of the Year in 2007 and was named to the 2009 All-Star team. He recorded a 1.92 ERA in 62 games picking up 43 saves (4th-most single season) and was named to the 2009 All-Star team, which was played in St. Louis. He finished his career with the Cardinals ranked 5th on the team’s all-time saves list with 84.

Franklin is a native of Oklahoma. Franklin, signed with Seattle in 1993 following two years at Seminole Junior College (Okla.). He won a gold medal as a member of the 2000 USA Olympic baseball team, picking up three wins to tie the Team USA record.

CAL ELDRED • SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Eldred enters his second season with St. Louis as a Special Assistant to the General Manager.

Eldred pitched for parts of 14 different seasons with Milwaukee (1991-99), Chicago (A) (2000-01) and St. Louis (2003-05). The right-hander concluded his career with a 86-74 record, a 4.42 ERA, 939 strikeouts, and 19 complete games in 341 outings. He tossed a career-high 258.0 innings in 1993, just one year after finishing fourth in the American League Rookie of the Year.

Drafted 17th overall in 1989 by Milwaukee, Eldred played nine seasons for the Brewers accruing a 64-65 record. He led the team in wins and games started during the 1993, 1994 and 1997 seasons. He and now-Cardinal manager Mike Matheny were teammates for five seasons in Milwaukee from 1995-99.

A starter for his whole career up until signing with the Cardinals in 2003, he made only one start in his three seasons with St. Louis.

Eldred amassed a 12-6 mark and nine saves during his 145 games with the Cardinals. He made his debut in the postseason during the 2004 season, appearing in one game during every level of the playoffs. He allowed two earned runs through 1.2 innings of work in the World Series.

Eldred announced his retirement following the 2005 season. He remains active as a pre-game and post-game commentator for Cardinal broadcasts on Fox Sports Midwest. He also has experience as an analyst with the Big Ten Network in 2009, which allowed him the ability to watch his alma mater, the University of Iowa, more intently.

In 2005, Eldred received the the Darryl Kile Award, an annual award given to the Cardinals player, by vote of his teammates, who demonstrates the qualities that Darryl brought to the clubhouse every day: those of a good teammate, a great friend, a fine father, and a humble man.
DeJohn made the transition from player to coach in 1983, when he became a minor league instructor for the Tigers. He began his managerial career in 1985 at Double-A Birmingham before joining the Cardinals organization in 1986. He returned to the Tigers for a season in 1992 to manage their Double-A affiliate in London, before returning to St. Louis to serve as field coordinator from 1993-95.

DeJohn was a member of Tony LaRussa's coaching staff with the Cardinals in LaRussa's first six seasons at the helm. He then went on to manage at multiple levels of the Cardinals farm system from 2002-2009 prior to being named the Cardinals' roving minor league quality control coordinator in 2010.

May was drafted out of high school #9 overall in the 1986 draft by Chicago (N). He made his Major League debut on September 6, 1990 and went on to play nine seasons with the Cubs (1990-94), Astros (1995-96), Phillips (1997), Expos (1998), and Orioles (1999). He also played three seasons in Japan from 2001-03.

Derrick May is the son of the late Dave May, a former All-Star outfielder who played 12 Major League seasons. He also has a brother, Dave May Jr., who works as a scout for the Toronto Blue Jays.

May's son, Derrick May Jr., was drafted by the Cardinals in the 37th round of the 2012 draft but opted to accept a scholarship to play at Villanova University.

Pitts began his playing career in 1964 when he was signed by the Cardinals out of high school. He played seven seasons in the Cardinals' farm system before being sent to Oakland, where he played more than six seasons and made his Major League debut on May 12, 1974. Pitts finished his playing career in 1977 in the Chicago Cubs farm system.

The following year, Pitts began his managerial career, spending 1978-79 in the Oakland organization. He joined the Cardinals in 1981 and worked as a manager, coach, and rotting instructor in the St. Louis organization from 1981-2002, including five seasons on Joe Torre's Major League staff in St. Louis. Pitts spent the 2004-05 seasons away from baseball, but returned to the game in 2006 as the manager of the Yankees’ short-season Single-A affiliate in Staten Island. He returned to the Cardinals in 2006 as manager of Advanced-A Palm Beach, where he spent two seasons.

Leveque enters his first season as Minor League Pitching Coordinator in the Cardinals’ organization after previously serving as Mechanics Analyst/Minor League Rehab Coordinator in 2013. He is his seventh season overall.

He spent 2012 as pitching coach with the GCL Cardinals and 2010-11 in Quad Cities. In 2011, Quad Cities won the Midwest League Championship, while the pitching staff registered the lowest batting average against (.234) in the 16-team league and sent three pitchers to the MWL All-Star Game.

Leveque spent the 2008 season at Johnson City before earning a promotion to Batavia in 2009. He was hired in March 2006 as a pitching specialist who coordinated and studied video of draft-eligible pitchers. Leveque’s playing career began as a prep at Crespi High School in Encino, Calif., the same school that produced former Cardinals pitcher Jeff Suppan. He was drafted out of high school by the Detroit Tigers but did not sign, instead choosing to attend and play college baseball at the University of Michigan.

DeJohn made the transition from player to coach in 1983, when he became a minor league instructor for the Tigers. He began his managerial career in 1985 at Double-A Birmingham before joining the Cardinals organization in 1986. He returned to the Tigers for a season in 1992 to manage their Double-A affiliate in London, before returning to St. Louis to serve as field coordinator from 1993-95.

DeJohn was a member of Tony LaRussa's coaching staff with the Cardinals in LaRussa's first six seasons at the helm. He then went on to manage at multiple levels of the Cardinals farm system from 2002-2009 prior to being named the Cardinals' roving minor league quality control coordinator in 2010.
