BLUE ROCKS BREAKDOWN

HOME: 11-11 | AWAY: 8-17 | STREAK: W1 | LAST 5: 2-3 | LAST 10: 3-7

ROCKS BEAT THE SOX FOR FIRST TIME THIS SEASON: For the first time in 2018 the Wilmington Blue Rocks beat the Salem Red Sox by the score of 4-3 Friday night at Frawley Stadium. The Blue Crew scored three times in the third inning to erase an early 2-0 deficit to start their week-long homestand with a victory. Wilmington had dropped its first six meetings with the Sox this season. Arnaldo Hernandez set season-highs in innings pitched with 6.1 innings of work and eight strikeouts.

STRUGGLES WITH SALEM: The win for the Blue Rocks Friday night snapped a six-game losing streak against the Salem Red Sox this season.

- Wilmington was swept in a pair of three-game series at Salem back on April 9-11 and to start their most recent road trip last weekend.
- During the six straight losses, Wilmington was outscored 36-18.
- Last season, the Blue Rocks took the head-to-head series by a slim 14-13 margin.
- The Blue Rocks were just 4-9 a season ago when they visited the Red Sox, but were an impressive 10-4 at home.

HOME SWEET HOME: The victory for the Blue Rocks certainly helped put their tough, seven-game road trip in the rear view mirror in which Wilmington went just 1-6 over the seven-game trek.

- Wilmington held a lead in five of the seven contests, but were only able to come away with the lone win which was in the second game of the series at Potomac on Tuesday in a 7-4 win.
- On the season, the Blue Crew are just 8-17 away from the friendly confines of Frawley Stadium while they are 11-11 at home.

LONG BALL FUN: With Oliver Nunez's solo homer in Thursday's loss, the Rocks have clubbed a home run in 23 of 47 games this season.

- It was his first-career Advanced-A home run and just his fourth-career home run.
- The Blue Rocks have seven players with multiple home runs this season.
- Chase Vallet leads the team with five, Kort Peterson is second with four, Emmanuel Rivera follows with three, Khalil Lee, Xavier Fernandez, Brandon Downes and Gabriel Cancel each have hit two with Wilmington.
- From April 9-14, the Rocks hit a home run in six consecutive games.
- Wilmington went 2-4 during that span and are 12-11 overall when they hit a home run this season.
- The Rocks are tied for the third-lowest HR total in the Carolina League with 26.
- Last season, the Rocks hit 78 total home runs.

HEATH IS HOT: Outfielder Nick Heath got off to a torrid start after his return from the disabled list last Thursday.

- The second-year Blue Rock is hitting .400 (10-for-25) in his first seven games back from the injury with four RBI, three runs scored and has swiped three bases.
- Tuesday at Potomac, he turned in his third, three-hit game of the week.
- He drove in the lone run for the Rocks in Monday's loss to Potomac.
- Saturday at Salem, he collected three hits, stole two bases, drove in a run and scored a run.
- In his first game back last Thursday against Myrtle Beach, he picked up three hits including a go-ahead, two-run, inside-the-park homer to push the Rocks to a 3-1 series clinching victory.
- It was the first inside-the-parker for a Blue Rock since 2016 when Ryan O'Hearn hit two in a span of six days.
- It was Heath's first home run in 59 games. His last homer came back on July 6, 2017 against Lynchburg.

PETERSON HOLDING KORT: Kort Peterson remains one of the hottest hitters in the Blue Rocks' lineup.

- Despite going hitless in the series opener Friday, the outfielder strung together a pair of seven-game hitting streaks over a 17-game span.
- Both hitting streaks match a career-high for the second-year Blue Rock.
- In the month of May, he slashing .350/.435/.500 in 23 games.
- Ranking: Second in the Royals' system in batting average (.306) behind 2017 Blue Rock Nicky Lopez (.331) and third in the Carolina League.
- He is tied for first on the team with 11 multi-hit games this season.
- Peterson is first on the team in total bases (68), and doubles (10), second in hits (44) and HR (4), and tied for third in RBI (18).
- He has provided versatility in the Rocks' lineup hitting in the leadoff spot, third, fifth, eighth and ninth in the lineup this season.

BURT PROVIDING THE HURT: Second-year Blue Rock D.J. Burt is not suffering from a sophomore slump in the Carolina League.

- He picked up another hit Friday night and is riding a season-high five-game hitting streak. .381 (8-for-21)
- The recent surge at the plate has boosted his overall batting average to .302 which is seventh in the Carolina League. He is also second in the loop in on-base percentage (.409).
- Burt has served as the Rocks' utility man this season, making 10 starts at second base, eight at shortstop, seven in left field and making his first-career start at third base tonight.
- This the first season in his professional career that he has played in the outfield.

LEE THE ON-BASE MACHINE: After going through a 2-for-26 skid in the final eight games of April, Khalil Lee is showing great patience at the plate this month.

- The 19-year-old is hitting .275 (22-for-80) and has an OBP% of .402 and has walked a team-high 14 times.
- He has drawn at least one walk in 10 of the 23 games.
- Has seven multi-hit games this month.
- Overall, Lee paces the Carolina League in walks (33) and is third in on-base percentage (.407).

Tonight's Starters

WIL: LHP Daniel Tillo (0-1, 7.71 ERA)
 vs.
 SAL: RHP Tanner Houck (2-5, 5.25 ERA)

-Left-hander Daniel Tillo makes his second start of the season with Wilmington and against Salem tonight.

- Drafted by the Royals in the third round of the 2017 Draft out of Iowa Western Community College.
- Ranked as the No. 18 prospect in the Royals' system per MLB Pipeline.com and No. 19 by Baseball America.
- The 21-year-old made his Advanced debut on May 20 in the second game of the doubleheader against the Red Sox and suffered the loss.
- Tillo worked 4.2 innings, allowed four runs (all earned) on six hits, walked two and struck out four.
- Started the season with the Lexington Legends (Low-A / South Atlantic League)
- Went 1-1 with a 4.35 ERA in seven starts.
- In 41.1 innings, he allowed 37 hits, 22R/20ER, walked 14 and struck out 31.
- Struggled with command early and walked 11 batters in his first 23 innings of work.
- Over his final 18.1 innings, he walked just three batters.
- Royals' Director of Scouting Lonnie Goldberg told MLB.com that "Tillo has a chance to be a mid-rotation starter and a guy you dream on."
- Was originally drafted out of high school in Sioux City, Iowa by the Minnesota Twins in the 39th round of the 2015 draft.
- Named Iowa's Mr. Basketball in his senior year of high school.
- Originally attended University of Kentucky and pitched just 7.1 innings before transferring to Iowa Western Community College.
- Was committed to play at Arkansas before the Royals drafted him.
- Features a fastball (91-94 mph) to go along with a slider and changeup.

-Righty Tanner Houck makes his ninth start of the season and second against the Blue Rocks.

- The 21-year-old was the 24th overall pick in last year's draft by Boston out of Missouri.
- Rated as the third-best prospect in the Red Sox system by Baseball America and MLB Pipeline.com.
- In his last start on May 21 at Frederick he earned his second win of the season.
- He tossed a season-high six innings, allowed just one earned run, five hits and walked three.
- It was a good bounce back start for the righty as he allowed 10 earned runs in 9.1 innings in his previous two outings.
- Faced Wilmington back on April 9 and did not factor in the decision.
- Last four innings, allowed two earned runs on four hits, walked four and struck out four batters.
- Spent his first pro season with the Lowell Spinners (Short-Season / New York Penn League)
- Went 0-3 with a 3.63 ERA in 10 starts, struck out 25 batters, walked eight and held opponents to a .239 batting average.
- Houck has a low three-quarters arm slot and features a fastball, slider, changeup and cutter.

TONIGHT'S BLUE ROCKS STARTING PITCHER

#44 LHP Daniel Tillo

Acquired: Drafted by Kansas City in the 3rd round of the 2017 Draft out of Iowa Western Community College
 Born: Sioux City, Iowa Age: 21 (June 13, 1996)
 Resides: McCook Lake, S.D Ht: 6'5 Wt: 215
 College: Iowa Western Community College Bats/Throws: L/L

Pitch Repertoire: Fastball, Changeup, Slider

TILLO A TALENTED THREE-SPORT ATHLETE: At Sioux City North High School (Iowa), Tillo went 22-2 in his career on the mound. Played quarterback for the football team and threw 49 touchdowns in three seasons and was also a three-time First-Team All-State selection in basketball. After being named high school Mr. Basketball in Iowa back in 2015, the southpaw considered trying his hand at being a two-sport athlete in college before shifting all of his focus to the diamond and attended the University of Kentucky. He pitched in just 7.1 innings with the Wildcats before he transferred to powerhouse Iowa Western Community College. There, he quickly made a name for himself as a power arm and sat around 92-95 m.p.h. and topped out at 97. However, he suffered a minor lat injury and a period with dead-arm, but the Royals still selected him in the third round in 2017.

PRAISE FROM THE ROYALS' BRASS: Lonnie Goldberg, the Royals' Director of Scouting spoke highly of Tillo when the Royals drafted him. "He's built like a starter and looks like a starter," he told MLB.com. "He has a chance to be a middle-of-the-rotation arm...This is the guy you dream on." Tillo is currently ranked as the 18th-best prospect in the Royals' organization per MLB Pipeline.com.

SCOUTS LIKE HIS STUFF: The 21-year-old is tabbed a top-30 prospect in the Royals' system by both Baseball America (No. 18) and MLB Pipeline.com (No.19). He also is ranked as the fourth-best left-handed starter in the organization and has one of the best fastballs of any pitcher taken in the 2017 Draft by Kansas City which sits at 92-94 and can touch 96 m.p.h. with sinking action.

2018: Made his Advanced-A debut on May 20 at Salem in the second game of the doubleheader.
 -Suffered the loss and worked 4.2 innings, allowed four runs (all earned), six hits, walked two and struck out four.
 -Started the season with the Lexington Legends (Low-A / South Atlantic League)
 -Went 1-1 with a 4.35 ERA in seven starts.
 -In 41.1 innings, he allowed 37 hits, 22R/20ER, walked 14, struck out 31 and opponents hit .233 against the lefty.
 -Allowed three earned runs or less in five of his seven starts.
 -Struggled with command in his first four starts and walked 11 batters in his first 23 innings of work.
 -Walked just three batters over his last 18.1 innings with the Legends.
 -On May 3 at Columbia, he struck out a career-high 10 batters.
 -On April 20, he carried a no-hitter into the seventh inning against the Hagerstown Suns.

2017: Spent the season between the Surprise Royals (Rookie/Arizona League) and the Burlington Royals (Rookie/Appalachian League).
 -Was limited to no more than five innings per start.
 -In the Arizona League, he struggled in three outings including two starts and posted a 9.53 ERA in 5.2 innings of work.
 -Allowed six earned runs, eight hits, did not walk a batter and struck out seven.
 -With Burlington, he turned it around and posted a 3-2 record with a 3.48 ERA.
 -In 31 innings of work, he allowed 12 earned runs, 35 hits and had a solid K to BB ratio (25 to 6)

At Iowa Western Community College: The same powerhouse JUCO that former Blue Rock and 14-year big leaguer Jon Lieber attended.
 -He went 5-1 with a 2.86 ERA in nine outings including five starts.
 -Tillo held hitters to a .192 batting average and racked up 57 strikeouts in 44 innings of work.

 -On-base streak of 62 games started on July 12 and went through first eight games with Lexington in 2016 and ended on April 16, 2016.

They said it: (On his style of play)...That's my game, speed and getting on and creating havoc on the bases. I told myself I had two pitches and then I'm out...It took its own form (on 62-game on-base streak). I pretty much just rolled with it. I ended the season in Idaho and pretty much knew about my streak but when I started in Lexington in 2016. I didn't even think about it. (On what is important to him on the field) I think defense is the number one key to me. That helps wins games. I know hitting does too but if you have pitching and defense, that can help make a run in the playoffs... (On players he tries to emulate) I know

 -Hit .283 with a pair of homers and 47 RBI in 64 games.
 -Struck out once every 10.50 plate appearances, the fifth-best rate in the league.

They said it: (On playing in most games in career last year)..."It's hard to do it that for the first time. I had to make a lot of adjustments and work every day. It's 140 games which is a lot more than where I was two years ago where I just played in 60 games. It was more of a mental adjustment for me. It's a lot of playing and a lot of games. If you didn't do good one week, you have to keep working. I dealt with my struggles by staying positive, trust in the process and come to work every day...(On who helped him get through the season) My hitting coach last year in Lexington really helped me a lot and talked to me a lot. My teammates as well, including (Meibrys) Vilorio also helped me a lot...(On Winning Carlos Fortuna Award) That means a lot to me. I knew Carlos Fortuna and he was a great person. The organization recognized me and how I am like him in some ways and that means a lot to me...(On learning how to speak English) It's been hard. I didn't know too much when I came to the United States. I try to keep close to the American teammates and talk to them. I don't try to use a lot of translation because the more I talk to people without help, the more I can learn...(Coming to the United States) I first came in 2008 with my family and went to Orlando for a week on vacation. We went to Disney World and it was a lot of fun. I came later in 2013 and went to Kansas City because I won the Player of the Year in the Dominican Summer League...(Culture shock moving to U.S.) In the Dominican Leagues you are just in the complexes that they have 24/7. Here in the United States, we go to hotels, we can walk to different places, go to dinner and it is a bit of a shock...(Goals this season) I just want to keep going and have better numbers and stay healthy. It's a long season and I want to do what I can to help the team win."

Notes: Drafted in the 8th round of the 2016 Amateur Draft by Kansas City out of the University of New Mexico. Was a catcher and designated hitter for New Mexico and won Player of the Year honors in District VIII by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association of America.

2018 Notes: Longest H.S./O.B.S.: +4 (4/5-4/8) / +6 (5/20 - present)
 -Hit first home run of the season on 5/19 @ SAL. (First homer in 40 games...8/25/17 vs. SAL)
 -Tied for third on team with 18 RBI.
 -Started the season picking up a hit in four straight games.
 -19 of his 25 hits have been singles this season. (2017: 135 hits, 54 XBH)

2017 Notes: Spent the season with the Lexington Legends (Low-A/South Atlantic League) and the Wilmington Blue Rocks.
 -With the Legends, he put up impressive numbers hitting .347 with 11 homers and 38 RBI in 30 games.
 -He led the team and was top-five in the South Atlantic League in multiple offensive categories before his promotion to Wilmington.
 -Led all Minor League players in total bases (86), home runs (11, tied) and RBI (38) when he was promoted to Wilmington.
 -With the Blue Rocks, DeVito hit .240 with 10 homers and drove in 53 runs in 103 games.
 -Led Wilmington in RBI and third in home runs.
 -On June 2 at Winston-Salem he hit for the cycle, achieving the feat in the sixth inning with a home run to go back-to-back with Brandon Downes.
 -Became first Blue Rock player since Dee Brown (April 18, 1999) to hit for the cycle and only player in the Carolina League to hit for the cycle.
 -Named CL Player of the Week for May 29 - June 4. Hit .462 in six games.
 -Overall, ranked second among Royals farmhands with 91 RBI and fourth with 21 HR.
 -Hit .304 vs RHP but just .129 vs LHP.

2016 Notes: Spent the season with the Burlington Royals (Rookie/Appalachian League)
 -Hit .261 with 13 doubles, nine homers and 50 RBI in 60 games.
 -Paced Burlington in his professional debut season in home runs and ranked second in the league in RBI.

They said it: (On what led to great success in Lexington to start the 2017 season)..."Honestly, my teammates. My first couple of games weren't very good and my teammates knew I could do it, they had my back and I couldn't have done it without my teammates and the great coaching staff we have down there...(On attending the University of New Mexico) I loved that school. Great school, great place to hit. Coach (Ray) Birmingham is a great head coach and knows what he is talking about with hitting. His support staff as well with Buddy Goldsmith, Ken (Jacome), the pitching coach, and Tony Cappuccilli were all great coaches and had great team environment there...(on moving from California to New Mexico) It is definitely different. It was the best place for me to go play baseball. My best friend from high school, Jared Holly, went to New Mexico first. He was a sophomore there my freshman year and he helped me in a lot of ways to make the transition easier...(On transition from catcher to first base)...I absolutely love it. Catching is rough, I respect those guys for being back there. Those guys grind and put their bodies on the line. Being at first is definitely a lot easier on the body...(On hitting for the cycle) Absolutely not, I've never done that before I was just super happy to get the win and happy to contribute. (If cycle was in his mind after the triple) A little bit, but not much. I know (triples) are incredibly hard to get and I'm not a big triples guy. I was just happy to get it done early and didn't have to worry about it."

 -He finished with the third most stolen bases of any farmhand in the Royals system.

They said it: (On injury earlier last season) I got hurt in (Low-A) Lexington, pulled my hamstring. I went down to Arizona (Rookie League) for a while, rehabbed it, I took that rehab process really seriously so I could get back on the field. I thought I would end up going back to Lexington to keep on playing, but they ended up asking me to come up to Wilmington and hop in the lineup. Like I said, I took that rehab process pretty seriously. I guess leg injuries aren't too much to mess around with and I want to be able to stay on the field and try to contribute to the team...(On having any other major injuries during career) I had Tommy John surgery, but that was back in college. In my professional career, the (hamstring injury) was the first injury I've had. My first leg injury as well, so it was kind of new to me; the steps, the process to get through it. A little bit of prayer and a little bit of work with our trainers, I'm able to get back on the field. (On seeing familiar faces with the Rocks) I think it makes that transition to a different level of ball easier. You are not so in awe of everything that is going on. You are realizing you are really cool with the guys that are around you and you fit in with them so it makes that transition easier, a lot more fun and less hectic...I think what led to the success (with Idaho Falls) was me buying into the process that these guys told me to buy into when they first drafted me. It was kind of new to me how they did everything around here. The offseason and prepping myself before games, staying up the middle and being able to go the other way, not necessarily pull the ball so much, just try to get myself on base, let my legs work and do what it can for the team. I think that helped me out a lot. It took a lot of stress and pressure off of me at the plate...(If base stealing is majority of his game) I wouldn't say (stealing) is the name of my game. I definitely want to get on and be able to score runs, put myself into a position where guys get pitches that they can drive and make the pitcher have to work when I'm on base. Stealing bases helps me out, helps the team out and I just want to do whatever I can to help the team win."

 -Earned MLB.com Organization All-Star and Baseball America Rookie All-Star Honors.

They said it: (On his quick rise through the system) "It's more of a blessing than anything. I've been blessed to move up every year. I just want to continue that success and keep it going...(On initial impressions of playing outfield at Frawley Stadium) If you are going to be a center fielder or an outfielder in general here, you're going to need to have speed to cover a lot of ground. I feel like this ballpark is just what I need...(On being highly regarded high school pitcher) I miss it sometimes and want to get out there. I try to beg my managers to let me go out there for one inning. I do miss it and it was a lot of fun...(On being born in Newark, DE) My parents lived here a few years and I'm sure they had a great time. We don't talk too much about Delaware because they are from Baltimore. I definitely think they will be happy to come back to watch me play...(On his goals for the season) I want to keep progressing as a hitter and a teammate as well. One of my goals is to be a Carolina League All-Star So I want to do that and hopefully move up to the next level...(Something people might not know about him) I like to dance a lot. It might be during batting practice, a pitching change that's just something I like to do...(On any other skills he has) I played the saxophone in middle school. I don't know if I could still play now, but I was pretty good at it."

2017 Notes: Spent the season with the Lexington Legends (Low-A/South Atlantic League) and the Wilmington Blue Rocks.
 -With the Legends, Peterson hit .290 with 12 doubles, a pair of triples and one home run to go along with 19 RBI in 49 games.
 -Was promoted to Wilmington in early June and played in just 11 games with the Blue Rocks after suffering a season-ending injury to his shoulder two weeks later.
 -In the small sample size, Peterson showed some pop in his bat. He went 13-for-39 at the plate (.333) with three doubles, two triples and a home run.

2016 Notes: Spent the season with the Burlington Royals (Rookie/Appalachian League)
 -Hit a team-leading .347 to go along with 21 extra-base hits (12 doubles, four triples, five home runs).
 -He also paced the league with his .437 on-base percentage.
 -Was named the Burlington Player of the Year for his efforts in his professional debut in addition to earning Appalachian League postseason All-Star and MLB.com Organization All-Star honors.

They said it: (On his season-ending injury in 2017) "It came at a bad time because I was starting to get a little hot. When it happened, I definitely knew something was wrong. I wasn't sure if it was season-ending or not, unfortunately it turned out to be that way. After that, I was hoping to be back soon. A month passed, I went to Arizona and did a lot of stimulation work to try and get my deltoid fired up and get it working again. Throughout the whole offseason I did that. I've been strengthening the muscles around it in case it doesn't come back. Unfortunately, nothing much has changed too much, but all the muscles around it have gotten a lot stronger. It's been a crazy process and hopefully my deltoid will come back. I played great in Spring Training without it so we'll see what happens... (How it has changed his game) It's definitely been a struggle with fatigue. It gets tired more quickly, especially throwing and hitting. I've made some adjustments so it doesn't fatigue as fast. I moved my elbow a little lower in my stance and my trap has compensated a lot for the loss for throwing. I was struggling with that in the offseason in terms of the strength, but it's getting better and things are looking up... (Playing in cold weather coming back from injury) I actually do like playing in cold weather. I come from a foggy beach town, so I'm used to the cold weather and overcast skies. It doesn't bother me. Obviously, if you still get jammed, it's going to hurt your hands pretty bad. In regards to my injury, I can't feel my shoulder. So it doesn't bother me either in hot or cold weather... (Having some experience in Wilmington) I'm very happy that I played a little bit here last year. I know what I'm getting myself into regarding what the area is like, what the ballparks are like and what some of the other teams are like. Especially to know how Frawley Stadium plays because the air is a little thick and you aren't

They said it: (On success in Lexington last season) Just going to the cages every day with my hitting coach in Lexington really helped me. We did a bunch of different drills hitting of the tee and front toss. I continued to work hard every day and it was a good year... (On bouncing back after tough first two seasons in system)... The first two seasons in the organization was very hard for me. I never saw pitchers throw 90-94 m.p.h. It took me about a season to get adjusted to that kind of pitching. Last year, I was able to see the pitches better and it was great. It's important to make adjustments and I was late at the plate when I first started and worked on my timing and now I feel comfortable... (On going through a transition on defense)... Before I was signed, I played shortstop. After my first practice, the coaches moved me to third base. I played shortstop for five years before joining the Royals. I miss it sometimes. I played it since I was five years old. At third base, the reaction time is the biggest difference from the two positions. It takes a lot of practice to get better with my reaction... (On coming to the U.S.)... I came to the U.S. four years ago and the biggest difference was the language. I try to speak English the best I can. My family and friends are still in Puerto Rico and were effected by Hurricane Irma. They had no lights, no gas, no power for months. It was bad. I've talked to my friends and family and they were telling me how bad it was. It's getting better now, but where I grew up, it was hit by the storm. My family still lives in the house I grew up and it was damaged."

2015 Notes: Spent the season with the Burlington Royals (Rookie/Appalachian League)
 -Hit .260 in 45 games with no 39 hits, all being singles.

They Said It: (Thoughts on last season) "It was a long season last year. I tried to go out and play hard every night. I started out struggling, but I worked with my hitting coach and it helped me a lot. I watched a lot of video on my swing to watch my mechanics. I hit with a leg kick which is more difficult. If you don't have your timing down with a leg kick, you don't have a chance. I had to make adjustments mentally during the first month of the season. If you aren't strong mentally, you can't play this game... (On feeling pressure as one of the youngest player in the SAL) I felt pressure being in A-ball for the first time in my career. I just wanted to go out and just play. I wanted to just play my game and put the ball in play... (Lifestyle in Columbia) It's too hot. Where I'm from in Cartagena it is really hot. We have everything though. We have a lot of beaches and lakes and it's fun. I miss the food the most, especially the fish. I miss my family too. They won't be able to see me play this year because of a family matter, but maybe next year."
