TODAY’S GAME: The Mississippi Braves take a six-game losing streak into Friday night’s fourth of five games at Montgomery. Right-hander Rob Whalen takes the ball for the Braves, facing Biscuits right-hander Ryne Stanek.

LAST TIME OUT: The M-Braves came out of the gate quickly with a two-run first, but Willy Adames homered off Kyle Kinman to tie the game in the sixth, setting off a four-run frame that put the Biscuits ahead for good in a 6-3 final. Newcomb allowed just a run on 3 hits over five innings of work. After scoring two quick unearned in the first, the Braves were stifled by Biscuits starter Taylor Guillemier, who finished his day retaining the final 13 batters he faced. Mississippi wouldn’t get a hit until the ninth.

MONTGOMERY BLUES: The M-Braves have lost five in a row and 7 of the last 8 at Montgomery’s Riverwalk Stadium, dating back to June 6, 2015, the first meeting of the 2015 season between the two squads. All-time, the M-Braves are 41-67 at Riverwalk and 88-122 overall against the Biscuits.

SLOW START: The M-Braves’ 1-7 start is the worst 8-game start in team history, eclipsed only by the 2-8 start 2003.

STELLAR STARTERS: Through eight games, Mississippi Braves starters have been stellar, posting a 1-2 record with a 2.36 ERA. They’ve posted a combined 39 1/3 innings, allowing just 30 hits for 10 earned runs, striking out 44 and walking 20.

BIG LEAGUE BRAVES: The Mississippi Braves had their first callups to Atlanta on Monday, sending LHP Hunter Cervenka to the Braves’ bullpen for their game in Washington. Cervenka made his MLB debut on Tuesday night, facing just one batter, allowing a hit to Daniel Murphy in Atlanta’s 2-1 loss. Cervenka becomes the 17th M-Brave in team history to be called directly to Atlanta from AA. He made two scoreless relief appearances for Mississippi this season and hasn’t allowed an ER in his last 3 2 professional innings between independent baseball, AAA Gwinnett and the M-Braves, a span of 27 appearances.

THE SKIPPER, BRAVE AND SURE: For the first time since 2012, the Mississippi Braves have a new manager at the helm in former big league third baseman Luis Salazar. Salazar spent the past five seasons managing the Braves’ high-A Carolina League affiliate in Lynchburg (2011-2014) and Carolina (2015). It will be Salazar’s 13th season as a minor league manager, posting a career record of 638-691 and a 340-355 record in the Braves’ organization. He played 13 seasons in the big leagues from 1980 to 1992, posting a .261 average and 94 home runs between the Padres, White Sox, Tigers and Cubs. Salazar returns to the Southern League after serving as hitting coach of the Jacksonville Suns (2008) and Chattanooga Lookouts (2009).

FAMILAR RACES ON STAFF: This season will be the fourth straight in which all of the M-Braves coaches boast Major League playing experience on their resumes. In addition to Salazar’s 13 years in the big leagues, hitting coach Gary Ingram played parts of three seasons for the Dodgers in the mid-90s, while Dennis Lewallyn spent parts of two seasons from 1975-1982 with the Dodgers, Rangers and Indians. A new addition as a fourth coach this season, Baraby Garay played three years in the big leagues with Detroit and Texas, winning a World Series ring with the Tigers in 1984.
TODAY'S GAME
Whalen threw the rubber on Friday night in Montgomery, trying to halt the M-Braves' six-game skid.

AGAINST THE BISCUITS
Friday will be Whalen's first career start against Montgomery.

LAST OUT COME
Whalen pitched a quick and efficient first two innings against Pensacola, but the Blue Wahoos came through for two in the third on a homer from Eric Jagielo. Whalen got out of trouble but hit his pitch limit after four frames, allowing five hits for the two runs.
