

50/50 RAFFLE OFFICIAL RULES

1. Baseballtown Charities ("BBT Charities") will conduct a 50/50 raffle (the "raffle") at FirstEnergy Stadium on such of the dates on which home games (regular season and post-season) of the Reading Fightin Phils are scheduled to be played as it may elect.
2. On each of those dates, raffle tickets will be sold throughout FirstEnergy Stadium from the time its gates are opened to the public through the earlier of the end of the 8th inning of that date's game or the time at which a decision is announced that the game or its completion has been postponed to a later date or cancelled. Such sales shall be for cash, as follows: (a) one ticket for two dollars; (b) three tickets for five dollars; (c) ten tickets for ten dollars; and (d) forty tickets for twenty dollars. Every raffle ticket sale will be final and each ticket purchased will represent one entry in the drawing for the winner of the raffle. BBT Charities shall, from time to time throughout the period that raffle tickets are being sold, identify on signage within the ballpark the charitable organization(s) for whose benefit the raffle is being conducted.
3. Following the conclusion of the 8th inning (or the announcement of any postponement or cancellation of the game), a single winning raffle ticket will be randomly drawn utilizing an automated computer program. The winning ticketholder need not be present at the time of the drawing in order to win. The winning raffle ticket will be announced at the end of the game (or within fifteen minutes following any such postponement or cancellation announcement), by posting its number at the bottom of the ballpark's electronic scoreboard, and by thereafter being posted for at least the next thirty days on the BBT Charities web site (www.fightins.com/5050).
4. Each raffle, and all tickets, transactions, participants, purchasers, winners and other aspects of the raffle whatsoever, are subject to these official rules, to the Pennsylvania Local Option Small Games of Chance Act and the regulations adopted pursuant thereto (together, "the Act"), and to any and all other statutes and regulations that may be applicable thereto.
5. Half of the amount of the gross proceeds from the sale of tickets to each raffle (as determined by BBT Charities in its sole discretion) shall constitute the raffle's prize (the "prize"). The other half shall be retained by BBT Charities for distribution to charitable organizations or for BBT Charities projects in accordance with the Act. Prize winners of $5,000 and above will be subject to all withholding tax in accordance with IRS requirements, and other federal, state and local tax requirements.
6. Raffle tickets may not be purchased and prizes may not be claimed by any person who is: (a) not at least 18 years old; (b) visibly intoxicated; or (c) selling tickets for or otherwise engaged in the operation of that raffle or is a director and/or officer of BBT Charities. A raffle ticket is void and its holder is ineligible to win the prize if there is sufficient evidence, in the sole discretion of BBT Charities, that the ticket was improperly issued, printed in duplicate or in error, counterfeited, stolen, illegible, altered or subject to other similar or dissimilar material deficiencies, and BBT Charities will have no liability with respect to or the redemption in error of such a ticket. Unauthorized persons copying, selling or altering raffle tickets or otherwise undermining the legitimate operation of a raffle are subject to prosecution.
7. By purchasing a raffle ticket, each ticketholder agrees to have his or her name, address, biographical information, photograph, image and likeness, and voice published, broadcast and otherwise reproduced by BBT Charities and/or the Reading Fightin Phils in any media or format, worldwide, for publicity and promotional purposes, without notice, review or approval and without further payment or consideration, for an unlimited duration.

8. Each person who purchases a raffle ticket, together with his or her personal representatives, heirs, successors and assigns (collectively, a "participant"), is by that act conclusively deemed to have agreed with BBT Charities as follows: (a) to defend, indemnify, release and forever discharge BBT Charities, the Reading Fightin Phils, and each of the Major League Baseball Clubs and Minor League Baseball Clubs (individually and collectively), the Office of the Commissioner of Baseball and the respective present and future affiliated entities, owners (direct and indirect), officers, directors, employees, agents and committees of the foregoing persons or entities (collectively the "released and indemnified parties"), from and against any and all claims, injuries, losses, damages or liabilities of any nature whatsoever to persons or property, which such participant may now or hereafter assert, including but not limited to claims for injury, death, illness or damages, resulting in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, from participation in any raffle and from acceptance, receipt, ownership, possession, misuse or use of any prize; (b) to waive any right to claim any ambiguity or defect in the operation of any raffle or in these official rules; (c) that the released and indemnified parties have made no representation, warranty or guaranty, expressed or implied, in law or in fact, relative to the operation of the raffles or to any prize, and are not responsible for any errors in raffle operations, prizes or materials; (d) to waive all rights to bring a class action suit or to claim punitive, incidental, special and consequential damages, attorney's fees or any damages from or against any of the released and indemnified parties other than actual out-of-pocket costs incurred to purchase a raffle ticket; (e) that any disputes will be resolved in Reading and governed under Pennsylvania law, without reference to its conflicts of law principles; (f) that any failure to enforce any provision of these rules shall not constitute a waiver of that or any other provision; and (g) that BBT Charities may modify, suspend or postpone any raffle to the extent in its judgment necessitated by, infection, tampering, fraud, unauthorized intervention or technical failure or by force majeure or any other reason beyond its reasonable control.
9. BBT Charities is a Pennsylvania not-for-profit corporation, which enjoys IRC Section 501(c)(3) tax exempt status, and which raises money for distribution to charitable organizations or for BBT Charities projects. Reading Baseball LP is a Pennsylvania limited partnership, which owns and operates the Minor League Baseball team known as the Reading Fightin Phils. While the two entities are affiliated, each is a separate legal entity, distinct from the other. BBT Charities is conducting the raffles at FirstEnergy Stadium with the permission of the Reading Fightin Phils, but BBT Charities is solely responsible for the operation and conduct of the raffles. A copy of BBT Charities' official registration and financial information may be obtained from the Pennsylvania Department of State by calling toll-free in Pennsylvania, 1-800-732-0999. Registration does not imply endorsement.
