

brady@rawhidebaseball.com

Brady was born and raised in Tempe, AZ and moved to Gilbert, AZ at the age of 11. He graduated from Valley Vista High School in 2013. Brady then went on to play college baseball at Northwestern Oklahoma State for 1 year (redshirt) then transferred to Bethesda University in Anaheim, CA where he played 4 years. Brady graduated from Bethesda in June of 2018 with a bachelor's in Sports Management. He is currently attending Arkansas State University to get a master's in Sports Administration. Brady have 3 siblings: 1 brother (Brett (31)) and 2 sisters (Breanna (27) & Baylee (17)).

College: Bethesda University

Hometown: Gilbert, AZ

Favorite Sports Team: All AZ Sports Teams (except UofA)

Most Hated Sports Team: Any Los Angeles-affiliated sports team

Favorite Meal: Burgers and Potato Salad

Favorite Movie: Big Daddy, Happy Gilmore

The one thing you would need on a deserted island: A Hammock

Song that pumps you up: Logic: 5 AM

Pet Peeve: Loud Chewing

Nickname: Hoch

Favorite Comic Book character: Iron Man

Desired Super Power: the ability to fly (I hate traffic)

Favorite Subject in School: Science

Highlight of sports career: 3 NCCAA World Series Appearances/ playing in 2016 NCCAA National Championship Game.