

Trey was born in Cincinnati, OH but grew up in Columbia, SC and then went to high school/college in Phoenix, AZ. He started playing baseball from tee ball all the way through high school. He graduated from Northern Arizona University in 2017 with a bachelors degree in History and a minor in Business Admin. Prior to joining the Rawhide, Trey worked as a baseball ops intern for the Cincinnati Reds during spring training. He is excited about joining the Rawhide team and continuing his career in baseball.

College: Northern Arizona University

Hometown: Cincinnati, Ohio

Favorite Sports Team: All Cincinnati teams

Most Hated Sports Team: Pittsburgh Steelers/ St. Louis Cardinals

Favorite Meal: Steak and mash potatoes

Favorite Movie: Superbad

The one thing you would need on a deserted island: Music

Song that pumps you up: m.A.A.d city by Kendrick Lamar

Pet Peeve: People who are late

Nickname: Trey Bomb

Favorite Comic Book character: Batman

Desired Super Power: Time Travel

Favorite Subject in School: History

Highlight of sports career: Hitting a homerun on Senior Night