(L) TY CULBRETH (7-1, 3.13) VS. (R) DUSTIN MAY (0-0, 0.84)

TODAY'S GAME: The 2017 Playoffs, brought to you by WaBa Grill, are back in LoanMart Field tonight, as your Rancho Cucamonga Quakes take on the Lancaster JetHawks (Colorado Rockies affiliate) with the Lancaster winning the series, 2-1. This game represents a win-or-go-home scenario for Rancho. If they were to win, the Quakes would head to Lancaster tomorrow for the decisive game five. This is the third consecutive season that the Quakes have been in the post-season. The Quakes have two California League Titles in their history: 1994 and 2015. This year marks the 14th time in the 25-year history of the Quakes that Rancho has appeared in the playoffs ('94, '96, '97, '98, '99, '03, '04, '09, '10, '11, '13, '15 and '16).

VS LANCASTER: Over the course of the regular season, the season series between Lancaster and Rancho Cucamonga was close. Following a JetHawks' win on August 31st, Lancaster won the season-series, 15-14. This is the second consecutive year, and only the second time ever, that the Quakes and the JetHawks are meeting in the the playoffs. In 2016, Lancaster beat the Quakes, 2-1, in the first round before losing to High Desert in the second round of the post-season. After Rancho outlasted the JetHawks, 4-3, in a 16-inning game one on a Noah Perio walk-off single, Lancaster took over the series as it shifted to The Hangar. Lancaster won the next two games, 17-11 and 21-6, to win the series and eliminate the Quakes.

GOLD GOLDEN IN GAME THREE WIN FOR LANCASTER: Lancaster starter Brandon Gold was too much for the Quakes to handle in his seven shutout innings last night, propelling the JetHawks to an 8-1 win over Rancho. Gold (1-0) struck out five and only allowed seven hits in the win and the Quakes could not score until the ninth inning, on a Zach Reks solo home run. Dodger rehabber Brandon McCarthy (0-1) took the loss, allowing three runs on seven hits over five innings for the Quakes. Luke Raley and Brandon Montgomery collected two-hit games for Rancho on the offensive side as well.

RECENT ROSTER MOVES: Today, RHP Adam Bray has been placed on the DL and RHP Andrew Thurman has been activated from the DL. On Thursday, INF Ibandel Isabel was placed on the DL and OF Darien Tubbs was activated from the DL.

PETERS TAKES HOME HIGHEST HONOR: On August 22nd, DJ Peters was announced as the California League Most Valuable Player. He was also named the Rookie of the Year (an award that goes to a player in his first full professional season) and a Post-Season All-Star. Peters becomes the third Quake to be named MVP, joining Brandon Wood (2005) and Corey Seager (2014).

CHANGE IN PLAYOFF FORMAT: With the re-formation of the league from 10 teams to eight over the off-season, the format of the post-season has changed in 2017. While the Quakes lost to the Lancaster JetHawks in the first round last year, that was just a best-of-three set in the Wild Card Series. This season, there will not be a Wild Card Series, but just a South Division Finals and a California League Championship Series. Modesto, which swept Stockton, will open the CLCS at Lancaster or Rancho Cucamonga on Tuesday.

KEIBERT'S PLAYOFF ROAR: Keibert Ruiz has been a wizard with the bat in the first three games of the playoffs for the Quakes. After going 2-for-4 in the first game of the series, he became the first Quake this season to record a five-hit game in game two, going 5-for-6. He is now 8-for-13 with two doubles and four runs scored between the three games, after a 1-for-3 game last night.

WELCOME TO RANCHO: Cristian Santana exploded onto the scene in his first two games with Rancho Cucamonga after being promoted from Single-A Great Lakes. The 20-year-old went 5-for-10 with a double and an RBI between the two playoff games in Lancaster.

MONTGOMERY HOT AT THE DISH: Combined over the last six games of the regular season and the first three games of the playoffs, Brandon Montgomery has hit safely in the last nine games, in which he is hitting .400 (14-for-35). Montgomery's two-homer game in game two marked the first time he had accomplished that feat in his career. He finished the regular season with just two home runs.

DUSTIN MAY TO START MOST IMPORTANT GAME OF THE SEASON: Dustin May will start the elimination game for the Quakes tonight. May, who was promoted from Single-A Great Lakes on August 26th, will make his third appearance with the Quakes today. May, a third round selection of the Dodgers in 2016 out of high school in Justin, TX, pitched well for the Loons. The 19-year-old went 9-6 with a 3.88 ERA in 23 starts and he earned a Mid-Season All-Star nod in the Midwest League for his efforts. The first player to be drafted out of Northwest High School, May is the number 15 overall prospect in the Dodgers' organization according to MLB Pipeline.com. In his last appearance for the Quakes, he threw five shutout innings, only allowing one hit while striking out eight and walking one. The right-hander has not faced the JetHawks during his career.

OPPOSING PITCHER: Ty Culbreth will start for the JetHawks tonight. The Bryan, Texas native was an eighth round selection of the Rockies in 2016 out of the University of Texas and he has found success in the California League this season. Over his 11 starts with the JetHawks, he made nine quality starts (six innings, no more than three earned runs). In August, Culbreth went 3-0 in six games (five starts) with a 2.06 ERA. Against the Quakes on August 29th, he took a no-decision despite throwing seven innings and only allowing three runs (two earned) on seven hits while striking out five, walking three and hitting two batters.

LISTEN TO THE QUAKES: Listen to every Quakes' game on Fox Sports AM 1350, online at rcquakes.com and the iHeartRadio and TuneIn Radio apps with the "Voice of the Quakes" Mike Lindskog and Zach Bigley.

NEXT HOME GAME: This could be the final game at LoanMart Field this season, unless the Quakes make it to the Championship series. The Quakes would like to thank all the fans that came out to support us all season long and we will see you at LoanMart Field for the 2018 season!
