AquaSox Available Positions & Responsibilities

Frog Squad- Must be high energy, personable, positive individuals who are willing to participate in outrageous activities on a regular basis. Entertainers will participate in dances such as the Chicken Dance and YMCA and will also participate in other on field promotions as they are conceived. The position is a major part of the AquaSox game experience.

Ushers- Extremely outgoing, friendly personalities who greet fans, escort them to their seats; wipe down their seats. They will trouble shoot all fan related issues in the stands and make sure our fans are having a first class experience. Ushers are not paid to watch the game. Ushers are instrumental in getting fans into the action. Being attentive to the fans needs and watching out for foul balls are of the utmost importance.

Ticket Office- Customer service oriented and quick thinkers. The position needs to have proficient understanding of the stadium seating, ticket prices, Will Call procedures, and will be trained on the AquaSox ticket software. Ticket office employees must be able to accurately handle money and perform other task that may come up throughout the game. Being comfortable working with computers and providing a high level of customer service a must.

Ticket Takers- Greet all fans as they enter the stadium, so they must be outgoing and friendly. Each guest that enters the stadium must be greeted in a positive, outgoing and welcoming manner. Specific Responsibilities include taking/checking/scanning tickets, handing out giveaway items and promotional calendars, answering fan inquiries and other duties as they arise. They will enforce the AquaSox policy of no outside food and beverages allowed into the stadium.

Parking Attendants - Have various duties in the lot, ranging from flagging cars to open spots, overseeing intersections and other duties as they arise. These employees will have the first contact with AquaSox fans, so they must be approachable, friendly and willing to offer assistance. Workers will be responsible for accurately counting money and selling parking tickets. The ability to do basic math is a must.

Fun Zone - Cast members working the Fun Zone (speed pitch and bounce houses) must be enthusiastic and approachable. They will be responsible for cash and must be proactive in getting fans to play and aware of fan safety.

Souvenir Store - Must have retail experience and feel comfortable handling cash. Duties include assisting fans in the store, accurately completing gift shop transactions and taking inventory. The gift shop should be dusted and cleaned several times a game. Customer service is very important in the stands as well as the store. Hawkers should be loud and visible.

Press Box - Pitch tracking. Must pay close attention to the game at all time, and record pitch by pitch results accurately.

Bat Boy - Will work closely with on-field teams, umpires, and clubhouse personnel. General duties include keeping dugouts neat and clean before, during and after games. Additional duties include filling the requests of coaching staff/players, shagging home run balls after batting practice, retrieving bats, balls, helmets and other items during games.

Clean Team - Maintain cleanliness of men’s and women’s restrooms, as well as keeping them stocked, circulate throughout the ballpark during the game, using a Disney Broom to sweep up items on the ground, respond quickly to a walkie-talkie call for clean-up, empty garbage cans as needed, clean up spills as needed, at the conclusion of each game, empty all garbage cans in the ballpark and place bags in the dumpster area.

Grounds Crew - Aid in ballpark/grounds setup and maintenance under direction from Head Groundskeeper.

Mascot - Good entertainer, enjoys being around children, arrive at the ballpark as the gates open, change into the mascot costume, and start entertaining guests as the game begins. AquaSox mascots do not speak, so there are a lot of hand gestures and other actions that are appropriate, both mascots will sign autographs and pose for pictures throughout the stadium, Mascots may take short breaks in the back of the team store. It is their responsibility to keep a radio in the break area so they can listen for certain promotional contests, they must be at the base gate at specified events, one mascot will leave after the last on-field promotion; the other mascot will stay until the end of the game, the successful mascot will also be available for appearances on non-game days.
