

jillian@rawhidebaseball.com

Jill grew up in Hermosa Beach, CA but loves her Boston sports teams. After graduating from Bishop Montgomery High School in 2014, Jill went to Emerson College in Boston, MA where she earned her degree in Broadcast Journalism with a minor in Sports Communications and a focus in Marketing. At Emerson, Jill was the captain of the softball team her senior year. Before moving to Visalia, Jill worked as the Booth Statistician for Red Sox Radio Network.

College: Emerson College

Hometown: Hermosa Beach, CA

Favorite Sports Team: Boston Red Sox

Most Hated Sports Team: New York Yankees

Favorite Meal: Pasta

Favorite Movie: Bull Durham

The one thing you would need on a deserted island: A swim suit

Song that pumps you up: Freaks by Tiny Trumpet (song the Red Sox played when they won a game in 2018)

Pet Peeve: People who are rude

Nickname: JG, Silly Jilly

Favorite Comic Book character: Wonder Woman

Desired Super Power: To fly

Favorite Subject in School: History

Highlight of sports career: Making it to NEWMAC playoffs for first time in program history my senior year