BACK TO BACK FOR BINGHAMTON: The Rumble Ponies won for the second straight day on Saturday afternoon, topping the SeaWolves, 4-2. Despite Erie scoring first again, Binghamton pitching allowed just two hits after the second inning without giving up a run.

BINGHAMTON STARTER: RHP Michael Gibbons makes his second-ever Double-A start after being promoted from St. Lucie (High-A). The 24-year-old made one start for the B-Mets in 2015, Gibbons' first professional season. After beginning to the 2018 on the disabled list, he tossed one three-inning outing for St. Lucie and did not give up a run.

TABLE FOR TWO: Binghamton has put together consecutive wins for the third time this season. The back-to-back victories against Erie, however, are the Rumble Ponies first since the opening-series sweep of the Portland Sea Dogs.

TAKE HIT OR LEAVE HIT: The Rumble Ponies have had more hits than their opponent just three times this season and are (3-0) in those contests. On the flipside, Binghamton is (1-6) when they have fewer knocks.

LEVI LEAVES THE YARD: INF Levi Michael was responsible for Binghamton's first run on Saturday, blasting a solo shot to left field. It was Michael's first longball since August 25, 2017 when he was with Rochester (MIN:AAA).

BROOM COUNTY: A Binghamton win on Sunday afternoon would earn them their second sweep of the season. It would also mean the first three series' at NYSEG Stadium would result in sweeps. Binghamton started 2018 by taking all three from Portland, before Akron took all three from Binghamton.

GIBBONS & THE SEAWOLVES: In 2015, Gibbons he made his fourth career start against Erie as a member of the B-Mets. He lasted 6.1 innings and gave up three runs, but was hit with the loss in a 3-2 game.

SHARING IS CARING: RHP Eric Hanhold became the fourth Rumble Pony reliever with a save. Binghamton is 5-for-5 in save opportunities.

ON THE MOVE: The New York Mets made a host of transactions today effecting the Binghamton Rumble Ponies roster. RHP Michael Gibbons has been transferred from St. Lucie (High-A), while RHP Gerson Bautista was recalled from New York (NL). RHP Marcos Molina was promoted to Las Vegas (AAA) for the first time in his career. In addition, INF Andrew Ely was placed on the disabled list, while INF Nick Sergakis was activated off the disabled list.

UP NEXT: The Rumble Ponies continue their week-long homestand Monday evening at NYSEG Stadium. They welcome the New Hampshire Fisher Cats with a scheduled 6:35 PM first pitch.
