

BRUCE KISON

TEAMS: 1971 & 1973

MLB DEBUT: 1971

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

-  Played parts of two seasons with the Charleston Charlies
-  Went 18-7 with a combined ERA of 3.98 over 32 appearances during the 1971 and 1973 seasons in Charleston
-  Made his MLB debut for the Buccos in 1971 and was the winning pitcher the night the Pirates beat the Giants to reach the World Series
-  Member of the 1971 and 1979 Pirates World Series Championship teams
-  Appeared in 380 games during his 15-year MLB career split between the Pittsburgh Pirates, California Angels and Boston Red Sox
-  Career pitching record of 115-88 with a 3.66 ERA