RANCHO CUCAMONGA QUAKES (29-18, 65-52)

AT

INLAND EMPIRE 66ERS (24-23, 54-63)

(R) PARKER CURRY (1-4, 4.02) VS. (R) JOSE RODRIGUEZ (7-11, 5.43)

TODAY'S GAME: Your Rancho Cucamonga Quakes take on the Inland Empire 66ers (Los Angeles Angels affiliate) tonight in the first game of a three-game series. The Quakes began this six-game road trip by losing two-of-three in Modesto. After this three-game set with the 66ers, Rancho will return home for four games with the Stockton Ports, starting Monday, August 14th.

VS INLAND EMPIRE: Rancho leads the overall season series, 13-8, head-to-head with Inland Empire. This is the 22nd meeting out of 27 between the two teams this year. The Quakes will see the 66ers one final time at home from August 25th through the 27th for a three-game series.

NUTS HAND QUAKES WORST LOSS OF 2017: It was a night to forget last night for the Quakes in an 11-0 loss to Modesto. The loss was the largest margin of the defeat for Rancho this season and it was not close from the beginning. After the Nuts scored one in the first on an RBI ground out, they put up four and batted around in the second inning off of starter Michael Boyle (4-5). It was the first of two times Modesto batted around in the game (seventh inning) and just one of the 11 runs was unearned against Quakes' pitching. On the offensive side, Jose Brizuela went 3-for-4 in just his second game with Rancho.

RECENT ROSTER MOVES: None.

CRUCIAL SERIES WITH 66ERS: With 23 games remaining in the second half of play, the Quakes have a five-game lead over Inland Empire and a nine-game lead over Lake Elsinore. The winner of the South Division in the second half will play Lancaster in the first round of the playoffs. If Lancaster wins the second half, the team with the best overall record in the South Division will meet up with the JetHawks in the first round of the postseason.

WELCOME BACK TO THE CAL LEAGUE: Jose Brizuela has been hot since joining the Quakes. In two games, he has four hits in his return to the California League. The infielder was a member of the Stockton Ports last season, where he hit .254 with 16 home runs and 54 RBIs in 100 games before being released. The Quakes signed him from the Florence Freedom, an Independent Baseball Team.

REKS WRECKING AT THE DISH: The newest piece of the Quakes' offense has been a key one. Zach Reks has only hit in nine games, but he has five three-hit games during that stretch. After going 1-for-4 last night, Reks is hitting .485 (16-for-33) with a home run, seven runs and two RBIs.

ONE-RUN GAMES OR BLOWOUTS?: The Quakes are a league-best 19-12 (.613) in one-run games this season. Rancho has won six-straight one-run contests. The Quakes are also a league-best 25-16 (.610) in games that are decided by three runs or more over the course of the season.

I'LL HAVE THE LAST LAUGH: When scoring last in a game, the Quakes are first in the league at 39-12 (.765), but they are second-to-last in the league when scoring first in games: 39-21 (.650).

RALEY'S STREAK ENDS AT 28: With an 0-for-4 night last night, Luke Raley's league-best on-base streak ended at 28 games. The streak beat Brian Mundell of Lancaster (27 games from May 11th to June 9th) for the longest on-base streak in the league this season. During the span, Raley hit .333 (38-for-114) with five home runs, 34 runs and 22 RBIs.

CURRY MAKES FIRST START FOR QUAKES: Parker Curry, who has exclusively worked out of the bullpen for the Quakes this season, will start the first game in Inland Empire. Curry made one start earlier this season with Single-A Great Lakes. In that game on April 11th in Lake County, he gave up five runs (three earned) in three and two-thirds and was saddled with the loss. Curry has also had short stints in Double-A Tulsa and Triple-A Oklahoma City this season. The 23-year-old was signed as a free-agent out of Samford in 2016, but did not make his debut until this season. The Birmingham, AL native pitched a third of an inning in Modesto on August 8th, allowing two hits, but no runs.

OPPOSING PITCHER: Jose Rodriguez will get the ball for Inland Empire tonight. Rodriguez was signed by the Angels out of Venezuela in 2013 and he has moved up one level (from Dominican Summer League to A-Advanced) every year since being in the Angels' organization. The 21-year-old has only started two games against the Quakes this season even though he is number two on the team in innings-pitched (119 and two-thirds). In his first start against Rancho, he allowed five runs on seven hits over four innings on May 4th in a no-decision. In his last start against the Quakes, Rodriguez was strong. He only allowed two runs (one earned) over six innings while striking out seven and walking two in a loss.

LISTEN TO THE QUAKES: Listen to every Quakes' game on Fox Sports AM 1350, online at rcquakes.com and the iHeartRadio and TuneIn Radio apps with the "Voice of the Quakes" Mike Lindskog, Sammy O'Brien and Zach Bigley.

NEXT HOME GAME: The Quakes are back in action at LoanMart Field against Stockton for game one-of-four, Monday, August 14th, at 7:05 pm. The MVP gates will open at 5:45 and the main gates will open at 6:05. Monday will be Social Media Monday. Fans will enjoy viral videos on the video board throughout the night and potentially win great prizes if they follow the Quakes on any social media platform! Tickets are available at 909-481-5000 or rcquakes.com.
