TONIGHT'S GAME

The Round Rock Express aim for a series victory over the San Antonio Missions in Wednesday night's game three. A win tonight would give the Express a commanding four-game lead in the Pacific Coast League's American Southern Division with just five left to play. E-Train LHP Ryan Hartman is scheduled to face Missions RHP Aaron Wilkerson. First pitch at Dell Diamond is set for 7:05 p.m.

BROADCAST INFORMATION

Tonight's game can be heard live on the flagship home of the Round Rock Express, AM 1300 The Zone. Online audio is also available at am1300thezone.iheart.com and via the iHeartRadio app. Express Director of Broadcasting Mike Capps handles play-by-play duties while St. Edward's University Head Baseball Coach Rob Penders provides color commentary.

ABOUT LAST NIGHT...

The Round Rock Express rode a dominant start by LHP Kent Emanuel to a 4-3 victory over the San Antonio Missions on Tuesday night at Dell Diamond. Emanuel was lights out in his 8.0 innings of work, blanking the Missions on just one hit while striking out six. The southpaw retired the final 21 batters he faced in the victory. Round Rock broke through a scoreless tie with a three-run third. C Jamie Ritchie kicked off the frame with a single before SS Alex De Goti worked a walk. RF Chas McCormick then kept his bat red-hot with a two-run single, giving the E-Train a quick 2-0 edge. The inning continued as 2B Jack Mayfield sent McCormick home with a single. In the fifth, Express DH Garrett Stubbs, CF Myles Straw and Mayfield combined for a trio of singles, the latest of which scored a run to give Round Rock a 4-0 lead. San Antonio attempted a late comeback off Round Rock's bullpen in the ninth. Missions SS Jake Hager singled prior to a Tuffy Gosewisch double. An ensuing Ben Gamel walk loaded the bases. 1B Tyler Austin then lined an RBI double to left field to put the Missions on the board. A sacrifice fly courtesy of 3B Travis Shaw pulled San Antonio within 4-2 before a two-out RBI single off the bat of DH David Freitas trimmed the gap to one, but the E-Train bullpen recovered to preserve the 4-3 win.

WINNING WEDNESDAY

Wednesday has proven to be the best day of the week for Express LHP Ryan Hartman. The southpaw is 2-0 with a 3.22 ERA (8 ER/22.1 IP) in five hump day appearances, including three starts. Comparatively, Hartman is 4-6 with a 5.88 ERA (56 ER/85.2 IP) in 18 games, including 15 starts, on all other days of the week. In addition, 25 of his 107 strikeouts on the season have come in Wednesday games.

BRINGING HOME THE TRAFFIC CONE

The Round Rock Express claimed the coveted "Traffic Cone Trophy" by clinching the 2019 I-35 Rivalry Series thanks to last night's 4-3 victory. More importantly, with Round Rock securing a season series victory over San Antonio, the Express own all potential playoff tiebreakers over the Missions.

WHERE HAVE ALL THE LONGBALLS GONE?

The Express and Missions have combined to go two straight games without hitting a single home run. This marks just the second time in 2019 that Round Rock and their opponent each failed to hit a homer in back-to-back games, with the only other instance coming on May 27-28 in Nashville. For the E-Train, this marks just the fifth time this season that the club has gone back-to-back games without a longball.

A STRANGE SACRIFICE SIGHT

E-Train INF Myles Straw laid down a sacrifice bunt in the midst of Round Rock's three-run third inning last night, marking only the third time this season, and the first time at home, that an Express hitter has attempted a sacrifice hit. Salt Lake (2) and Las Vegas (6) are the only other clubs in the Pacific Coast League with single-digit sacrifice hits on the year.

NO EXTRA CHARGES

Last night marked just the fifth time this season that the Express were held without an extra-base hit as each of the team's eight base hits were singles. Strangely enough, Round Rock holds a 2-3 record when failing to record an extra-base hit.

TODAY'S TRANSACTIONS

The Houston Astros recalled Round Rock Express RHP Cy Sneed on Wednesday afternoon. The righty assumes the roster spot of Astros RHP Brad Peacock, who was placed on the team's Injured List with right shoulder discomfort. Additionally, E-Train LHP Cionel Pérez was added to the Express active roster. He had been on the Injured List since June 29 before a brief stint with Class A-Advanced Fayetteville.

EXPRESS MANAGER MICKEY STOREY

Mickey Storey joins the Express from the Class-A Quad Cities River Bandits, where he began his managerial career in 2018. The 32-year-old skipper led the River Bandits to an 81-59 record in 2018, the second-best mark in the Midwest League and the club's highest win total since 2015. Prior to his time in Quad Cities, Storey served as the Development Coach at Class-A Advanced Buies Creek in 2017. The former right-handed pitcher had a nine-year professional playing career that included one season with the Astros in 2012 in which he posted a 3.86 ERA in 26 appearances with the Major League club.

Storey was born in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, where he attended nearby Deerfield Beach High School before moving on to Florida Atlantic University in Boca Raton. He was drafted twice in his career, first by the Minnesota Twins in the 22nd round of the 2007 MLB Draft and again by the Oakland Athletics in the 31st round of the 2008 MLB Draft. During his nine-year professional career, Storey pitched at every level of affiliated baseball, including stints with Sacramento and Oklahoma City in the Pacific Coast League. He also posted winter ball stints in the Dominican Republic, Mexico and Venezuela. He finished his playing career in 2016 following two seasons with the Somerset Patriots of the independent Atlantic League. In total, the righty amassed a career 3.52 ERA in 385 games.
