WINSTON-SALEM DASH (71-61, 33-35) @ LYNCHBURG HILLCATS (62-72, 30-37)

Game 136 - Home Game 66 - Monday, September 2, 2019 - 12:30 p.m. - City Stadium

LHP Konnor Pilkington (4-9, 5.15) vs. RHP Brock Hartson (2-2, 2.90)

ABOUT LAST NIGHT: The Hillcats couldn't hold back the red-hot Winston-Salem Dash offense on Sunday as the Dash came out on top 10-3 in the third game of the series. Jonathan Allen, in his first game in the Carolina League, slugged two homers and drove in four runs in a 3-for-5 effort for Winston-Salem. The Hillcats' only runs of the ballgame came on a two-run homer from Henry Pujols in the second inning, who was getting his first Carolina League start at just 20 years old. Lynchburg went just 2-for-10 with runners in scoring position over the course of the game while the Dash went 5-for-14 in those situations. Jorgan Cavanerio allowed just two runs over seven innings in the start for Winston-Salem, earning his ninth win of the season.

SCOUTING THE DASH: The Hillcats and Dash have played pretty evenly this season as Lynchburg has gone 9-10 in games against Winston-Salem this year, including 4-5 at City Stadium. Neither team is still in the playoff chase as the Dash were eliminated from contention in the Southern Division Thursday night when they fell to the Salem Red Sox by a score of 1-0.

HIT THE KWAN: Steven Kwan has been absolutely on fire in the month of August. After a torrid month of April that saw him hit .352, Kwan has been even better at the plate in the season's final month. Kwan is hitting .372 in August with just seven strikeouts in 27 games this month. Kwan now has more walks this year (53) than strikeouts (51). Kwan has collected multiple hits in five of his last 10 games.

DOWN IN THE DESERT: On Wednesday, The Cleveland Indians announced the players they would be sending to the Arizona Fall League to play for the Mesa Solar Sox. Hillcats players Kirk McCarty, Brock Hartson, and Gavin Collins will represent the Indians organization, as will 2019 Hillcat Nolan Jones who is currently playing with Double-A Akron. Lynchburg trainer Jake Legan will also serve as a part of the Solar Sox coaching staff.

YEAR-END ALL-STARS: On Thursday, the Carolina League announced the Year-End All-Star selections for the 2019 season. Hillcats third baseman Nolan Jones and outfielder Oscar Gonzalez were tabbed with the honor. Both players are currently playing with the Double-A Akron RubberDucks, with Jones being promoted on July 8 while Gonzalez was called up on August 1. At the time of his promotion, Jones led the Carolina League in on-base percentage and total walks while Gonzalez still paces the league in batting average with his .319 mark. Both players were named Carolina League Mid-Season All-Stars and Jones participated in this year's SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game in Cleveland.

MAYBE NEXT YEAR: The race for the second playoff spot in the Northern Division has turned into a two-team race between the Salem Red Sox and the Potomac Nationals. The Hillcats were in the thick of things down the stretch, but with Lynchburg 10.0 games back of the Red Sox and one game left to play, the Hillcats are mathematically eliminated from playoff contention.

THE END OF THE STREAK: The Hillcats failed to secure their eighth consecutive playoff spot this season. Heading into the year, Lynchburg had a league-high seven straight seasons of making the playoffs, earning the Carolina League title twice over that span (2012 & 2017). Lynchburg had also won the second half in four straight years, dating back to 2015. However, the Hillcats were mathematically eliminated from playoff contention this year on August 26 with Salem's win over Winston-Salem.
