TONIGHT
Tonight, the Hartford Yard Goats play the first of a 4-game series against the Portland Sea Dogs (Boston-AL) at Hadlock Field in Maine... Hartford will be the road team for the first time this season.

YARD GOATS WIN OPENING TWO SERIES
The Yard Goats began their inaugural season in style winning their first two series (3-1 in Richmond & 2-1 in New Hampshire)... Last Thursday's Opening Day victory was actually the first MiLB game in America (1:05 start) with other games (A-AA-AAA) starting later that afternoon...

GOAT FEED:
The Yard Goats become the first professional baseball team to play in the state Capital since the Hartford Chiefs (Boston-NL) in 1952... Hartford is the third stop in the Nutmeg State for the current Yard Goats franchise which began play in the Eastern League in 1973 (Bristol Red Sox 1973-1982, New Britain Red Sox 1983-1994, Hardware City/New Britain Rock Cats 1995-2015)... The Yard Goats become the first Eastern League club to relocate (12 miles from New Britain to Hartford) since the Connecticut Defenders moved from Norwich to Richmond in 2010...

SO WHAT IS A YARD GOAT?
The name “Yard Goats” was chosen by the selection committee after nearly 6,000 entries and over 35,000 ballots were submitted during a three week contest in March of 2015... A Yard Goat is a serious workhorse locomotive moving and shuffling cars from track to track in the rail yard keeping things in order... A Minor League Baseball player is like that humble Yard Goat, not a glamorous job but working hard in and day out away from the big city lights to assure that the Major League affiliate is kept on track.

YARD GOATS COACHING STAFF

The Yard Goats first ever coaching staff was announced by the Colorado Rockies in January with Darin Everson (EE-ver-sun) named Yard Goats manager, Ron Gideon serving as Development Supervisor and former Major League players Dave Burba (Yard Goats Pitching Coach) and Jeff Salazar (Yard Goats Hitting Coach) rounding out the staff... Billy Whitehead is the athletic trainer and Brady Fitzgerald is the strength and conditioning coach... Burba pitched 15 seasons in the Major Leagues (1990-2004) with six clubs and earned 115 wins over his career... Salazar played outfield with the Colorado Rockies, Arizona Diamondbacks and Pittsburgh Pirates between 2006 and 2009... This is be Everson’s seventh season as manager...

THE HARTFORD YARD GOATS “NAME THE TEAM CONTEST”

On March 18, 2015 the Hartford Baseball Club Announced its new name, the Hartford Yard Goats, at Press Conference at the Wilson-Gray YMCA Youth & Family Center on Albany Ave in Hartford. The name was chosen by the selection committee after nearly 6,000 entries and over 35,000 ballots were submitted during a three week contest. “We wanted a name that would identify our organization as family friendly and appeal to kids as well as baseball fans throughout the region,” Team Owner Josh Solomon said. “The Hartford Yard Goats will create new fan experience opportunities for everyone and build a brand that embodies the fun product that minor league baseball teams are all about.” The Hartford Yard Goats name was submitted by Anthony Castora of New Jersey who won lifetime season tickets. A Yard Goat is a serious workhorse locomotive moving and shuffling cars from track to track in the rail yard keeping things in order. A Minor League Baseball player is like that humble Yard Goat, not a glamorous job but working hard day in and day out away from the big city lights to assure that the Major League affiliate is kept on track.
