The 109th annual Baseball Winter Meetings are returning to the Sunshine State and the fabulous Walt Disney World Swan and Dolphin Resort® from December 6-9. The two-building resort near Orlando, Fla., boasts more than 2,200 rooms and proved to be an outstanding and popular site for the annual gathering of baseball executives when the resort hosted the meetings in 2006.

Upwards of 3,000 people are expected to congregate at the four day convention to plan for the 2011 season and honor the achievements of the past year. In addition to representatives from all 30 Major League Baseball organizations and more than 160 Minor League Baseball teams, various league offices, companies associated with baseball and guests from baseball-playing countries around the world are expected to attend.

Most of the Baseball Winter Meetings’ major events, including the Bob Freitas Business Seminar, Awards Luncheon and Baseball Trade Show will take place in the Dolphin. The Baseball Trade Show™ will host approximately 300 exhibitors from December 6-8 and will be housed in the Atlantic and Pacific Halls in the Dolphin wing. The Annual Banquet and the Professional Baseball Employment Opportunities Job Fair from December 5-8, will be held in the Swan.

The resort is connected by a walkway, putting the assembled executives from Major League Baseball and Minor League Baseball in proximity to each other. Among its numerous amenities are redesigned guest rooms, 17 spectacular restaurants and lounges, five pools, a white sand beach, two health clubs, tennis, nearby golf, spa and many special Disney benefits. Visit www.swananddolphin.com for more information about the resort.

Orlando is the epicenter of fun and excitement, with more than 100 attractions keeping visitors coming back for more. Take the mix of legendary theme parks, spectacular museums, world-class entertainment and blockbuster rides and attractions, and it would take about 67 days to visit all of the entertaining offerings in Orlando.

Reserve your spot in the Florida sun now for the 2010 Baseball Winter Meetings at the Walt Disney World Swan and Dolphin Resort®.
